BIG FIGHT TONIGHT

All Set For World's Heavyweight Championship Battle at New York

NEW YORK (Given a break in the weather, bulky fightweary Joe Louis will defend his, heavyweight championship against Jersey Joe Walcott tonight in what will mark the end! of a boxing era. This intriguing prospect, the last ring appearance of a great champion or an upset victory by the old south Jersey campaigner, is expected to lure 55,000 people to the Yankee Stadium.

Odds favoring Louis stand at 5 to 12 and may drop to 1 to 2 by ringtime due to an influx of Walcott money.

Both fighters are 34 which is ld as fighters go.

Louis weighs 215 pounds and nings). Walcott tips the scale at 194. Receipts are expected to reach $800,000 to $900,000 with a television take on top of that.

Dr. J. L. Moreno, psychiatrist. picks Louis to win by a knockout in the early rounds.

Louis is rated as the superior puncher and, if he can make Walcott fight his kind of fight he should catch him early. Otherwise, a long fight might get Louis' legs in which case Walcott would stand a chance. Although it was threatening
