Picture List In August

Pictures of exceptional interest billed for the screen of the Capitol Theatre here during the month of August include such as the drama, "Damned Don't Cry," with Joan Crawford and David Brian; "Fahster of the Bride," Spencer Tracy and Joan Bennett, and the Disney cartoon, "Cinderella."

Following is the August list:
August 3—"Lady in Ermine," Douglas Fairbanks Jr. and Betty Grable, and "I Cheated the Law," Tom Conway.
August 4 and 5—"Ambush," Robert Taylor and John Hodiak.
August 6—"The Threat," Virginia Grey and Michael O'Shea, and "Variety Time," Edgar Kennedy and Leon Errol.
August 7 and 8—"The Damned Don't Cry," Joan Crawford and David Brian.
August 9 and 10—"Paid in Full," Robert Cummings and Lisbeth Scott.
August 11 and 12—"Eagle and the Hawk," John Payne and Rhonda Fleming.
August 13—"Racketeers Call it Murder," Humphrey Bogart and Richard Whorf.
August 14, 15 and 16—"Big Hangover," Van Johnson and Elizabeth Taylor.
August 17, 18 and 19—"Father of the Bride," Spencer Tracy

'Ambush' Action Packed Drama

Superlative outdoor drama — trigger-quick action gun fights, Indian forays, spectacular horsemanship and magnificent scenic backgrounds—are combined in "Ambush," which brings Robert Taylor, John Hodiak and Arlene Dahl to the Capitol screen this week.

It is the drama of a wily scout employed by an Army post commander to lead troops to the capture of a marauding and murderous Apache renegade.

The daring escape of Robert Taylor, cast as the scout, from his Apache pursuers, a spectacular battle between Indians and troopers, the animosity between Taylor and John Hodiak, playing the post's stuffed-shirt second-in-command, leading to a blood-drawing slugging match, a suspense-filled ambush set by the Apache renegade and his followers, and Taylor's final deadly encounter with the Indian, are action highlights of a story revolving around a triangle comprising Taylor, Hodiak and Arlene Dahl.
