Union steamer Camosun, Capt. William McCombe, arrived in port at 6 o'clock last evening from north Queen Charlotte Islands and sailed at 9 p.m. for Vancouver and waypoints. The sister ship Coquitlam, Capt. John Boden, reached port at 8 p.m. from Vancouver and sailed at midnight for Alice Arm, Stewart and other northern points whence she is due back here tomorrow morning to sail south at 1:30 p.m.

An old timer in port yesterday was Alec Chman, captain of the Powell River Company tug S. D. Brooks, which has been hauling Davis rafts from Masset to the mainland for the past six weeks. The tug was in picking up provisions and fuel before returning to the Queen Charlotte Islands to resume operations.

Disembarking here last evening from the south on the Coquitlam were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McMeekin, Miss M. Arnott, Miss J. LaChance, Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkie, Mrs. W. Steenbergen, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Reilly, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hardie and family, H. J. Graham, Mrs. Astoria, Miss Astoria, Miss Mary Landry, Miss Kitchener, Miss J. Baird, James, Raymond and Bruce Burnett, Mrs. Heys, J. H. Weeden, Mr. Soires, Wallace Price, G. W. Joffile, Miss A. Johnston, Miss B. Blake, Mrs. Gleave, R. C. Edwards.

Irene Dunne Likes Queen

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Irene Dunne, home from Britain, is brimming with praise for the Queen.

The actress is back after a six-months absence, during which she played the part of Queen Victoria in "The Mudlark." While she was in Britain, she had a lengthy chat with the King and Queen.

"They were very interested in the picture," she related, "and were anxious to know if we were getting the right help on preserving the authenticity. They were both very charming."

Miss Dunne had chances to observe the Queen on public occasions, too, and she enthused about her.

"She is the picture of serenity. At all times she seems greatly interested in whom she is meeting and what she is being shown. You can tell that she feels deeply the responsibility to her subjects."

Miss Dunne found her own reign as Victoria somewhat gruelling. The reason was the now-famous jowls, which had to be applied every day. The rubbery neckpiece was glued on in a process that required almost two hours each morning.

The chore of putting the jowls on and taking them off was fairly painful, and Miss Dunne isn't sure she would be willing to endure the grind again.

"There were times when part of my skin came off," she said, "and I expected my neck to be never the same again. Amazingly enough, my skin is better than ever. Maybe I've discovered something."

Terrorism In Saigon

SAIGON, Indo China — More than 100 terrorists are under arrest today after French and Vietnam police smashed what was called a Communist plot to make a general attack within the city. Authoritative sources are quoted as saying the plot was cooked up by Ho Chi Minh, Moscow trained leader of the rebel Viet Minh. Captured terrorists described as "volunteers of death," admitted the plot.

Bright Rainwear For Every Woman

LONDON — There's a style for every woman, in this year's British rainwear.

From liquid-shaped, rubber-backed rayons, costing around five guineas ($16.27), prices range upward through gay plaid checks and tartans, tailored gabardines and proofed whipcords, to £18 to £20 ($62) convertibles.

Donkey brown gabardine reversing to fine west of England check, or black-and-white dogs-gabardine, are two of the more popular numbers.

Overseas visitors, however, seem to favor the lively plaid checks and tartans reversed to equally bright gabardines.

For those who dislike the bulky convertibles, there are smooth, silk-lined gabardines with matching hat or hood. A lime-green gabardine with deep, wide raglan sleeve, swing back and optional dog-lead belt, has front cuff-panel or black to match the deep, pointed black collar and cuffs and matching deerstalker bonnet. Price 18 guineas.

GAY FOR DULL WINTERS

The gayest of brighteners for dull British winters, are the shimmer-surface nylon satins with light rubber backs. In shades of orchid-pink, seal black, cherry red and gooseberry, they are in popular demand.

The highlight of this year's rainwear, however, is a soft leather or suede top coat. Combined travel coat, raincoat and winter warmer, it is expensive and ultra-smart.

Lined with tweed or fur, built to defy the hardest winter, part of the charm lies in the exact matching of accessories.

If the top coat is worn over a suit, a smart accessory is 'the matching waistcoat.

Popular with Canadian, American and Scandinavian buyers are the short boxy suede jackets worn with pencil-slim, tweed or gabardine skirts. With shoes,

Build Own Cruiser With Hammer, Saw

HALIFAX — G. B. Isner, a druggist, and Milton Todd, a chef, both of Halifax, wanted a boat to sail along Nova Scotia's shores, but didn't like the prices quoted by boat builders. So they built their own—a 23-foot cabin cruiser—despite the fact neither had ever built anything before. Armed with only a hammer and saw, the amateur boat builders set up a workshop in the back of Isner's drug store. When the cruiser first slapped the water, the cost was $4,000 for her share. Chief Todd says he can follow rules and is easy. "Anybody can build a boat," he says. "The boat owner has to have nothing to do with it. So they will be bigger than effort."

OUTWELL, Norfolk — They've got to be in the parish church authorities are to get rid of the gloves, hat and bag to match, they make a startlingly vivid ensemble. Colors range from soft tans, browns and mustards to vivid coronation red, purple and emerald green.
