Empire Day Is Observed

In the Civic Centre this afternoon after a two-block parade of students from Booth Memorial High School, Borden Street and King Edward school, gathered in the auditorium for a widely varied program of musical selections, choral numbers, plays and general entertainment in observance of Empire Day.
The program was under the supervision of the I.O.D.E., Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby, municipal regent, who gave an address.
From 10 a.m. to 11 a.m. this morning, 255 Grade One to Five students at Conrad Street school staged a fine, interesting program to members of the I.O.D.E., parents and friends. Under the supervision of Principal T. G. Bateman, the tots sang patriotic selections, presented a short operetta, depicting scenes from Holland and heard an address by Regent Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby. The children went back to their classes following lunch.
At the Civic Centre, Principal J. S. Wilson lead his 50 voice choir through "Dawn Gentle Flowers" and "Golden Slumbers." Miss Yvonne Larsen accompanied on the piano.
Contributions from King Edward School consisted of a play directed by Miss Dorothy Robertson entitled "Sir Brian."
Booth Memorial High School were last on the program and presented an orchestral selection; in addition to providing orchestral accompaniment throughout the program. Other musical selections consisted of a solo, and a choral number by the school choir.
Ladies of the I.O.D.E. acting as standard bearers during the day were Mrs. A. Stiles of the Duchess of Edinburgh chapter; Mrs. T. McMeekin of the Cambrai chapter; Deshka Penoff of the H.M.C.S. Haida chapter, and Mrs. M. J. Keays, municipal standard bearer.
