There will be a lot of youth galloping over the playing field at Roosevelt Park tonight when junior baseball players display their skills in a full dress practice. Veterans of the Senior League will be on hand too but mainly in the role of observers and judges. Officials of the city teams are looking for recruits and youngsters that show up well tonight will be candidates for the senior rosters.

The fate of this year's Softball League was left undecided at a meeting called for last Wednesday night and attended by representatives of two prospective teams. In the hope that a large turnout of players and fans will attend another meeting being held tonight the organization of this year's league is being held off till that time.

Ralph Morin and daughter, Miss Yvonne Morin, returned to the city Tuesday afternoon by air from a trip to Vancouver.

MARRIED IN EVENING SUN

The glow of the evening sun illuminated St. Peter's Anglican Church, Seal Cove on Friday at 8 o'clock when Betty, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Duffus, Eighth Avenue East, became the bride of Robert Menzies, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Menzies, Hays Cove Circle.

Archdeacon Hodson officiated while Mrs. Helen Marchildon presided at the organ. To the strains of the Wedding March the bride entered the church on her father's arm. She wore a white crepe dress with lace bodice and deep lace yoke and a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses and lily of the valley. Her sister Margaret, was bridesmaid. She wore a dress of similar pattern in a pale dusty rose and carried a bouquet of carnations, irises and purple heather. The groom was attended by his cousin, Ted Menzies.

A reception was held in the Vahlha Hall where the bride's mother, wearing a wine dress with grey accessories, and the groom's mother, in grey with green accessories, received the guests.

The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Archdeacon Hodson, the groom replying, and a toast to the bridesmaid was proposed by H. E. E. Faure, the groomsman responding.

A telegram of congratulations was read from the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murray of Kelowna, and a cablegram from her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Nicol, Garmouth, Morayshire, Scotland.

Supper was served, while the bride and groom cut the wedding cake in the traditional manner.
