Not a great deal is known locally about the potential of the visitors but it is known that, in the persons of Messrs. Hay, Webster and Barton, they carry three former coast Senior "A" stars that will be better known before they leave here next Monday. True they will prob- ably suffer just a little from travelling overnight by train and might not be the club they could be at game time tonight but they will have two chances and will no doubt play it that way.

Many will welcome back Hal Person, the very personable athlete, who spent a year or so with us early in the war years. Hal played basketball for the drydock team in the winter of '42, a little baseball that sum- mer then got tired of building ships and took off for the Air Force.

There were railbirds a plenty at the Civic Centre last night watching our reps go through their paces for coach Alex Bill. Sev Dominato was down at one end of the gym working with young Monk Sunberg, checking hook shots and prac- tising defence in general. May- be Sev heard something from Kamloops that all don't know anything about. C.N.R. TENNIS CLUB OPENING

May 1 has been set as the opening date for the Canadian National Recreation Association's Tennis Club season and, as there are only two courts, membership will depend on how early the applications come in. The "name board" system will be employed this year by means of which every member has an equal chance to play. On May 24 an American tournament will be held. A. R. Nichols, Robert Bartlett and Claire Warskett comprise the organizing committors in this year's competitions. Those of last year's young and promising team who will band together this year again include Glen Olsen, Charlie Currie, "Monk" Sunberg, Pat Wilson, Tommy Boulter, Jim Hebb, John Wilson, Alvin McKay, Oscar Mercer, Andy Owens, Jack Sharp, Bob Currie and Arne Lien.

City Merchants

City merchants are asked in future to have copy for all display advertisements into the Daily News office by 4 p.m. of the day previous to their publication.

SHADES OF YESTERYEAR...

"When I was your age..."

Things were much better in the Good Old Days... or so the Old Timers always tell the younger generation. Yes, time is kind to old memories... and when we think of the days gone by we tend to remember only the good things, and to forget the bad.

Down through the years, however, certain things have remained constant... unchanging... as good today as they were then—like Princeton Beer, for instance. Unvarying in its unique quality, goodness and mellowness, Princeton Beer is top favorite today—just as it was when Grand-dad was a young blade.
