Manitoba Flood Sufferers!

The Daily News Is Receiving Subscriptions

This picture could be duplicated thousands of times—forced to flee their homes in the Manitoba floods, all possessions lost, no hope for the future, and a great deal of bewilderment and sorrow. Evacuated to higher ground, Mr. and Mrs. Isadore Rondeau of St. Boniface, Manitoba, now live in one room. Their hope for getting back on their feet is the help they receive from the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund. The Fund will help them buy new furniture, replace clothing and personal belongings, and thus avoid poverty and destitution.

Jap Return to West Coast Fishing Object Of Visit

The possible return of Japanese-Canadian fishermen to the Northwest coast is foreseen in the mission of Buck Suzukai, representative of the Japanese-Canadian Association, who arrives here June 9.

Suzukai intends to make a tour of the Skeena canneries and camps and discuss recommencement of Japanese-Canadian operations in the district.

Before the war many Japanese worked in canneries and on boats on the West coast. After Japan attacked the Allies in World War II all persons of Japanese extraction were sent away from the coast.

Gunnar Anderson Takes Business

J. G. (Gunnar) Anderson has purchased the interest of Lee M. Gordon in the Gordon & Anderson hardware and furniture business in which they have been equal partners since the business was established on May 12, 1938. Official announcement of the deal has just been made.

New Traffic Ties On Berlin Highway

BERLIN — Soviet frontier guards slowed down Western truck traffic on the Berlin highway today.

While it appeared here that the slow down might have been in reprisal for the detention of four East German barges in Western Berlin canals, truck drivers at Helmsstedt check point said Russian zone guards told them the new restrictions were counter measures against "mistreatment" of a Communist youth going home from Sunday's gigantic East Berlin rally.

Quick Trial Cause For Tokyo Strike

TOKYO — Openly defiant, Japan's Communist party today ordered a general strike Saturday in reprisal for the occupation force's rush trial of eight Japanese, accused of kicking and stoning United States soldiers.

The strike call promised to bring to a head the growing tension between General McArthur's occupation forces and belligerent communists. A captain, four soldiers and observers at an anti-American rally in the downtown Imperial Plaza

Prairie Water Project Signed

OTTAWA — Agriculture Minister Gardiner announced today in the House of Commons that he has signed an agreement for carrying out irrigation projects on St. Mary's River in Alberta. The project will be carried out on a joint basis with the Alberta government, which signed the agreement a short time ago.

Flash Sea Bee Has Brush With Easy Disaster

ST. IGNACE, Mich.—A trailer loaded with coal broke loose yesterday from its tractor and crushed to death three Canadians in a passenger car. All were from Ontario.

FIVE WILDCAT STRIKES
LONDON — Five wildcat strikes today were causing costly delays in London's docks, railway, power and building industries. A total of more than 1,000 men were idle in five stoppages.

Flying a small See Bee aircraft from southern Illinois to Ketchikan, Charles Railsback made an emergency landing here at 12:45 noon today and had a close call from disaster when he struck square into a telephone wire as he came down for a landing in the water at the Seal Cove air base. Fortunately, the machine did not remain entangled but came down with no more damage than the scratching of some paint.

Mercy Hop For Banker

Q.C.A. Poised for Emergency Hop Here From Stewart

Arrival was being awaited here early this afternoon of a Fairchild Husky seaplane of Queen Charlotte Airlines on a special flight from Stewart, bringing in for surgical treatment, G. J. S. Anderson, manager of the branch of the Bank of Montreal at the mining town, who was stricken suddenly late Wednesday with acute appendicitis. The plane had been poised at Stewart since early this morning awaiting clearing of weather to start the one-hour flight. It had not arrived up to 1:30 this afternoon.

Pakistan Freedom To Be Safeguarded

OTTAWA — Liaquat Ali Khan, Pakistan Prime Minister, told Parliament yesterday that Pakistan is resolved to safeguard its freedom "at all costs."

In a speech to a joint session of the Commons and Senate, he said his country was pledged to the principles of democracy—freedom, equality, tolerance and social justice as enunciated by Islam. "This does not mean theocracy, for Islam does not believe either in priesthood or the caste system."

Spread District Interest In Drama Festival Sought

Principal aim of the Prince Rupert Music and Drama Association will be to assemble musical, historical and terpsichorean talent from a wide area of the district and Northern British Columbia and, if possible, from Alaska, at the 1951 Festival in Prince Rupert.

The 1950 Festival, with a wide range of competitive classes in dramatic arts, drew a measure of enthusiastic response within the city with a number of outside entrants.

The syllabus for the year with the inclusion of many new features to develop the wider district now on and is taking shape with that end in mind.

The executive of the Music and Drama Association has received approval to a preliminary draft of the 1951 syllabus, presented by a committee headed by Henry Plum.

The next meeting will be held June 21 when further attention will be given to the syllabus with particular reference to the pieces to be used in competition.

Transportation Hearings Finish

OTTAWA — A year less a day from its opening, the Royal Commission inquiry into Canada's transportation problems ended yesterday.

Completion of the longest and most comprehensive investigations in Canadian history sees the three man body, under Hon. W. F. A. Turgeon, now about to draft recommendations that they bring about drastic changes in the Dominion's transportation picture. No time limit has been set for the disclosure of these

Imperials To Receive WVA

OTTAWA — Driving toward the end of its business, the House of Commons sat only briefly yesterday to hear an address from Liaquat Ali Khan, visiting Prime Minister of Pakistan.

But before the address, the House gave the third and final reading to three bills, one of which extends war veterans allowances to "imperials" and other veterans of the allies of Canada in the first world war.

Halibut Pact Is Extended

OTTAWA — The Canadian Senate yesterday approved the convention signed with the United States February 8, 1949, extending and modifying the Pacific Coast Halibut Treaty of 1923. There was no debate.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Relatively clear skies are expected to continue over the southern British Columbia coast for the next two days. Low clouds and fog banks are present in the waters off the west coast and in the vicinity of the Queen Charlottes. These will drift onshore from time to time especially during the night. A tongue of cool moist air which moved south over the interior during the night brought scattered showers in its wake. Skies will clear from the north during the day and sunny weather is expected to be much more general tomorrow.

Forecast
North Coast Region — Clear along the northern mainland. Fog banks and low cloud in the vicinity of the Queen Charlottes and northern Vancouver Island lifting from the land in the middle of the day then drifting onshore again at night. Little change in temperature. Winds light. Lows tonight and high Friday— at Port Hardy and Sandspit, 45 and 58; Prince Rupert, 40 and 63.

Jumbo's Progress

Total ticket sales in the Jumbo halibut guessing contest for the Manitoba Flood Relief Fund were reported this morning as about $270. This includes the baseball game proceeds Sunday. The fish was exhibited all afternoon and part of the evening yesterday in front of Manson's Jewellers on Third Avenue. Mr. Manson reported this morning that many ticket sales are being made in the store. At 2 p.m. yesterday, Jumbo greeted the C.N.R. Prince Rupert and helped to swell the kitty.

ROYAL CONGRATULATIONS WERE IN ORDER FOR UNBEATABLE BEN—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor are seen offering beaming congratulations to Ben Hogan on the latter's winning the $10,000 Greenbrier Open Golf tournament at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., with a sensational four-round score of 259. Hogan tied the P.G.A. world mark set by Byron Nelson in the 1945 Seattle, Wash., open last year. This was one of the most important games that Hogan has ever won because it ended fears that he would never be able to play golf again as the result of terrible injuries suffered in an automobile accident over a year ago.
