All Star Collegiate Team To Meet Local Jets Next Week

Another big basketball series is being thrown in at the Civic Centre next week for local hoop fans when the California Mohawks, an all star aggregation from the California Collegiate Institute, visits here on Wednesday and Thursday to take on Prince Rupert's All Star Jets. They are on the way to Alaska for engagements at Metlakatla and Ketchikan.

To date this season the California team has travelled over 10,000 miles. They have averaged 70 points per game and have three times scored more than 100 points. Their trip has taken them through Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Nevada and British Columbia. They have won 31 of 33 games played. The Club is exclusively a travelling team and every player is a member of the Amateur Athletic Union.

Jack Marcus

Jack Marcus—Six foot veteran guard for the Mohawks, said to be one of the best dribblers on the Pacific Coast. Jack formerly starred for San Francisco City College.

Art Ziehn

Art Ziehn (team captain)—is also a six footer, formerly played for the Oakland Bittners. He is team captain of the Mohawks, holds their high score record and is the playmaker. He holds the single game record for the team this year with 43 points.

Reception To Hockey Team

LONDON —Edmonton Mercury, who won the world's amateur hockey championship here on Wednesday, were tendered a reception at Canada House last night. Lord Alexander, the Governor-General, who is on a brief visit to England, was on hand. The team sails for home from Liverpool on March 29.

Wednesday night's victory gave the Western Canada intermediate champions a clean sweep in seven tournament games and Canada's seventh title since the competition was first instituted.

Westminster And L.A. Win

NEW WESTMINSTER —New Westminster defeated Seattle 3 to 2 in overtime Wednesday to take a one game to nil lead in the best of five semi-finals for the northern division of the Pacific Coast Hockey League.

Los Angeles defeated San Francisco 4 to 3 in the first game of their round robin play-off.

Jack Lilja

Jack Lilja—fleetfooted, ex-San Francisco High School star where he twice made All-City. He has scored in the thirties several times this season. Last season he played with Hank Luisette's Stewart Chevrolets.

The Mohawks will arrive in the city on the Prince Rupert Wednesday morning and will remain over here until Friday morning when they will proceed to Ketchikan on the Princess Norah.
