BASKETBALL

The prediction that Prince Rupert All Stars would defeat Ketchikan Elks last Friday night was endangered at least three times in the last minute of the game, Prince Rupert committing three personal fouls, the shots for which were not converted. Prince Rupert blew a ten point lead which they enjoyed at the end of the third quarter and it looked for a minute or two that Ketchikan's last quarter drive was going to win them the game but they were over anxious on their foul shots and lost each of their golden opportunities.

The Rupert All-Stars were a different looking bunch from Thursday. They played well together, had plenty of drive, and were much stronger on the defence. Rupert Holkestad was high scorer for the game with 10 points, but was out on his feet in the last quarter when he left the game via the personal foul route. Beynon played a smart defensive game, and Joe Davis was much improved over the previous evening getting many of the rebounds that were going to the Elks on Thursday. Don Scheit found his shooting eye and pointed 8 points. Ray Spring and Platen each played a driving game and accounted for 17 of the Jets' points. All things taken into consideration, Prince Rupert deserved their win.

Ketchikan again played a smart game and equally as good as the previous evening. Their passing was a treat to watch and they put on a great display of perfectly co-ordinated team effort. They excelled in change of pace dribbling and, for a seven-man team, are as nice a group as ever came out of Alaska for a Prince Rupert series. Harry Johansen was held to three points on Friday night after his brilliant display of the previous evening. Joe Brewer and Bill Christiansen each scored 9 and Jack Johansen 8.

The Junior affair in which High School beat Sea Cadets was a good game to watch although a bit one-sided and it was only in the first period that Sea Cadets were able to hold even with the students. Drake for the Cadets scored 8, as did both Tait and Nickerson from High School.

The league resumes its regular schedule this Saturday, January 7, with two important breaks in the January routine, when U.B.C. Chiefs play here on January 13 and 14 and the bearded House of David team on January 30 and 31.

Vancouver Wins Over Calgary

VANCOUVER (CP)—The star-studded Vancouver Blue Bombers slipped and slithered their way yesterday to an 8 to nothing triumph over Calgary's Junior Stampeders in the third annual Evergreen Bowl football tilt here while twenty-six hundred fans shivered in frigid weather. The power-packed bombers proved too much for the Albertans by using almost unlimited reserve power to grice out the first downs.

Timely Recipes

TOASTED SALMON ROLL-UPS
During party time, it falls to the lot of many a housewife to think up different party snacks. Canned salmon has always been a favorite, and can figure in new ways to decorate a party platter. Cut crusts from buttered thin slices of bread, spread the bread with salmon-cheese mixture, roll up tightly and chill.

Salmon Cheese Spread: Flake 1 cup (1/2 lb.) of canned salmon. Mash 2 three-ounce packages of cream cheese, add 2 tbsps. each Roquefort cheese and chopped chives, 4 tbsps. finely chopped celery, dash of cayenne, salt to taste. Add flaked, canned salmon and 2 tps. each lemon juice and mayonnaise. Just before

HINTS ROMANCE WITH IRAN SHAH—Blonde Selene Walters has hinted that she may hitch her wagon to a shah—his imperial highness of Iran. Selene, a beautiful 23-year-old former Goldwyn girl, told newspapermen that she flew back to the United States two weeks ago after a month's visit in Iran to continue a fairy tale romance which she says started when the handsome young shah saw a photograph of her. However, she refused to reveal whether she and the shah has seen one another since the 30-year-old monarch arrived in North America on his goodwill mission.

LOOKING BACK

25 Years Ago

Ex-Alderman Montgomery charged the city administration with "thievery" in connection with the removal of a plank road on Tate Street, Westview, to aid in the building of roads in other parts of the city. He spoke to the Ratepayers' Association.

Plans for the construction of a new cannery at Seal Cove were announced here by W. J. Jefferson, manager of the Miller cannery interests. Mr. Jefferson planned to take up residence in the city.

City council was considering a letter from C. D. Howe, designer of the terminal elevator, as to whether or not the city had sufficient electric power to supply the terminal when it was built.

10 Years Ago

The Northern Pyrites mine on the Esstall River which had been in steady development during the season, was closed down.

John Jacob Astor, member of the rich and historic Astor family was a recent visitor in the city. He arrived in a private railway car. Mr. Astor said that he had visited the city two years before and liked it so well that he decided to return.

Terje Johansen, well known halibut fisherman was lost from the halibut boat Mae West on the west coast of Graham Island. He was dipping a bucket on a line when he was pulled overboard.

During party time, cut rolls into 2-inch lengths, toast under broiler, and serve piping hot. 1 cup of Salmon-Cheese roll mixture will spread 3 to 10 slices of bread making 1 to 20 roll-ups.

Toronto Favors Sunday Sports

TORONTO (CP)—Straight-laced Toronto voters have snapped tradition and voted to permit Sunday sports.

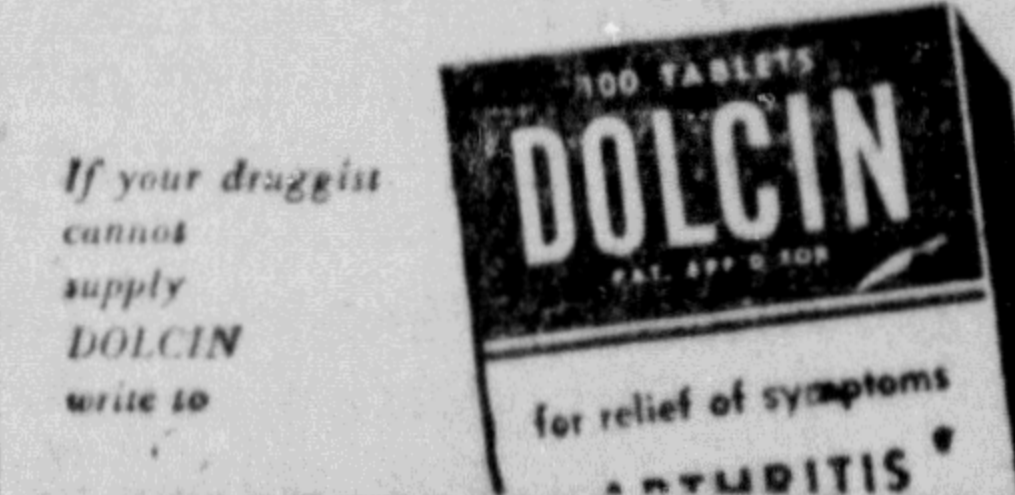

In a record civic election turnout yesterday voters of the City of Churches surprisingly decided 85,108 to 81,793 to allow commercialized sports on the Sabbath. In doing so they overrode almost unanimous opposition of the churches, went against the editorial advice of Toronto's three daily newspapers and tossed the controversial question back to the city council.

Mayor Hiram McCallum was re-elected with a record majority. He said the question of Sunday sports will be taken up with the provincial government early this month.

K. F. Harding, general manager of the Prince Rupert Fishermen's Co-operative, left for Vancouver by plane Monday enroute to Toronto, Ottawa and New York on a business trip.
