Half Century Is Helped In

With the help of whining sirens, deep-throated horns and shrill whistles, 1950 was born and bewhiskered 1949 fell back into eternity. Celebrating the arrival of the next century, many parties were held at dwellings and for those who didn't want to bring the New Year in at home, there were various frolics.

Largest party of them all was the naval party held in the ward room of H.M.C.S. Chatham where 200 guests enjoyed a cabaret style atmosphere. Music was supplied by the Four Dukes orchestra.

At Seal Cove in the Aero Club a party attended by about 85 people was staged. Under the leadership of Bob Wood as master of ceremonies, guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly. Another section of the Four Dukes supplied dance music.

At the Moose Temple, the hall was packed with feet dancing to the music of violinist Bert Cameron and pianist Mrs. J. S. Black.

An estimated 200 persons attended and left completely satisfied with the evening's events.

With Gunnar Selvig acting as master of ceremonies, approximately 100 guests helped to bring Miss Geraldine Cade daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Cade, 207 Fourth Avenue West, sailed Sunday night on the Camosun to resume teaching duties at Kelowna after spending Christmas holidays with her parents here.

With the holiday season at an end, students from Prince Rupert attending University of British Columbia are returning to studies at Vancouver. Included in the passenger list going south on the Coquitlam today were Gordon Calderwood, Ronald Ward, John Wesch, David Kristmanson and S. G. McCaig.

The New Year in at the Sons of Norway hall. Convened by Mrs. Frank Schroeder, the event was highly successful. Music was supplied by Mike Colussi.

Assisting Mrs. Schroeder were Mr. and Mrs. J. Petersen, Mr. and Mrs. K. Slatta, Mr. and Mrs. John Fredheim and Alf Jensen.

Tommy Dorsey, Glenn Miller, Artie Shaw and others with the help of recorded bands supplied music for dancing at the Armouries New Year's Eve. The Kinsmen frolic was attended by about 120 persons who enjoyed a cabaret style celebration.

And so it continued until the early hours of the morning with many saying "Never again." But resolutions are made to be broken

Norsemen To Panama

VANCOUVER (9)—A pair of affable young Norwegians walking around the world stopped here to get their shoes repaired.

The 23-year-old buddies, Carl Peterson and Erling Brunberg of Oslo, left their homes four months ago and arrived here by various means as riding a railway speeder across northern Ontario and paddling a raft down Hudson Bay. They've done enough walking to wear through half an inch of boot spikes.

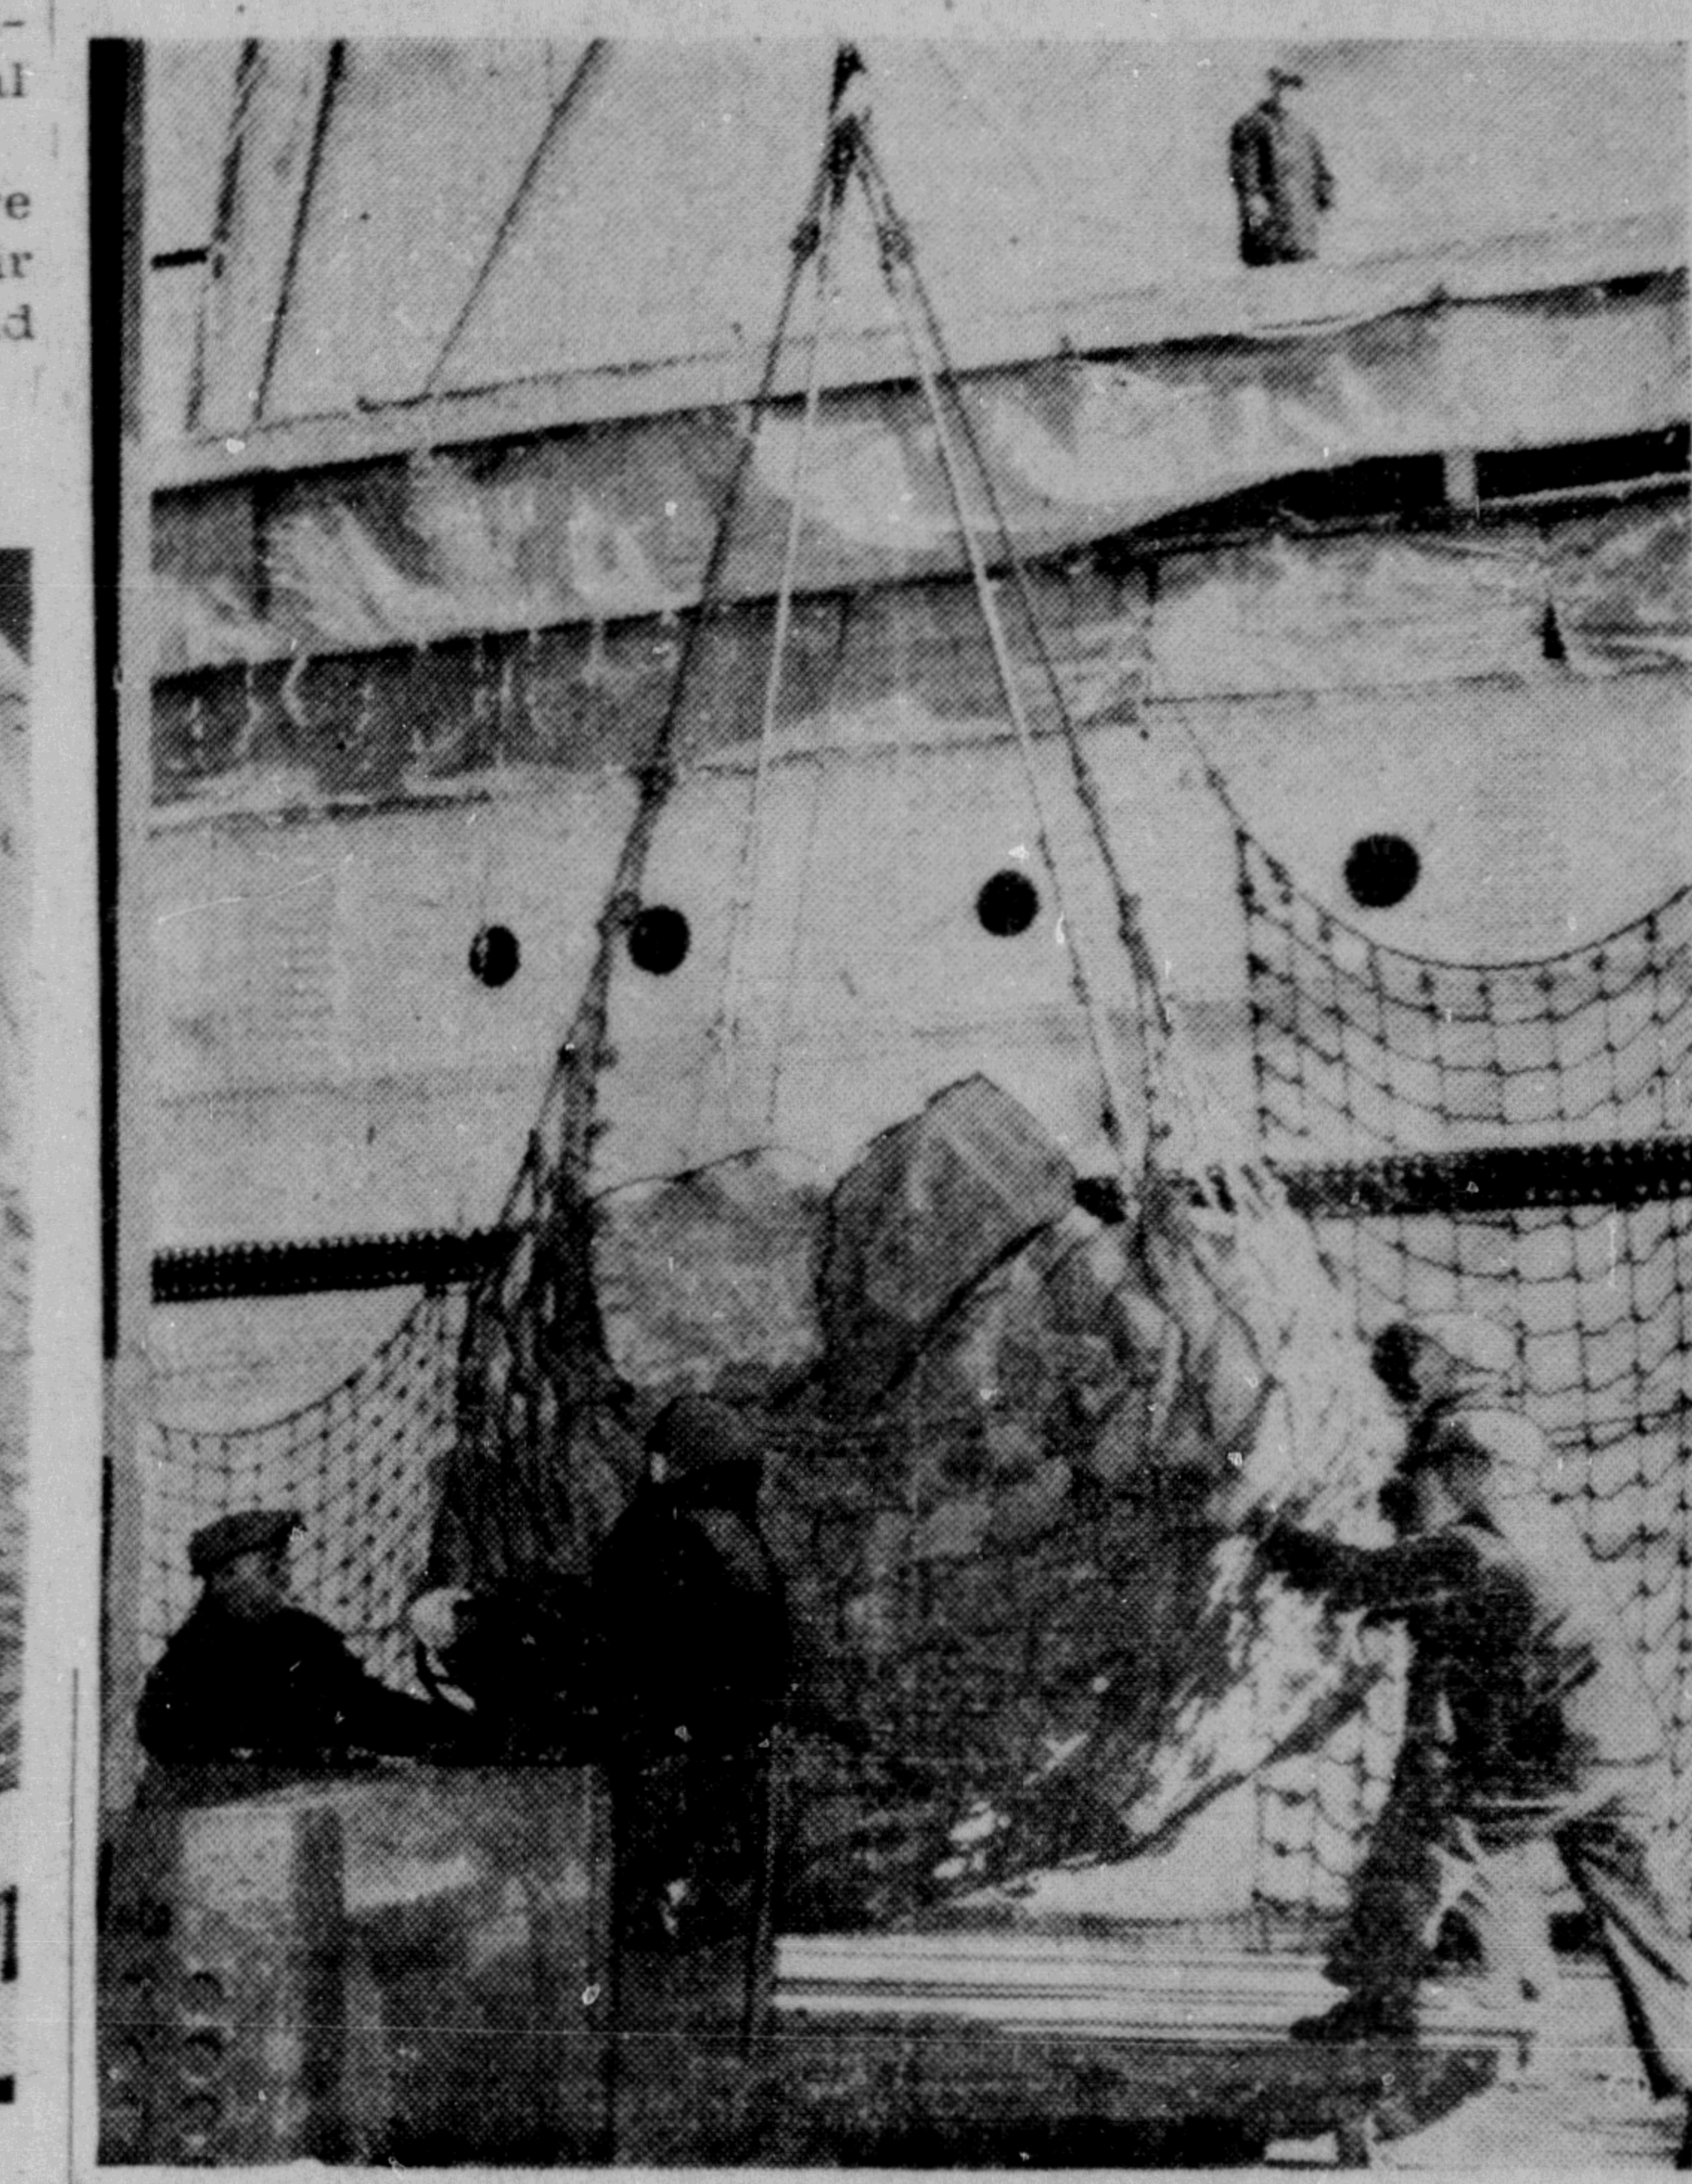

They never make plans, they say, but they're heading in the general direction of Panama and eventually the South Seas.

Forty cents a day keeps them eating and they carry all their supplies—a miniature stove, bedding, a few dishes and essential clothing—on their backs.

They want to cover a lot more before they go back to see their parents who, incidentally, did not approve of their journey.

CHAMP CROCHETER—Holding the victor's cup, Joseph Dolin of Dunellen, N.J., smiles happily as he views his prize-winning entry in the men's division of the Needlecraft Bureau's nationwide crochet contest. The award was made at an exhibition in Chicago.

BELETED CHRISTMAS GREETINGS—Halifax stevedores unload some of the 11,609 bags of mail which arrived Christmas morning aboard the Canadian Pacific Steamships liner Emapress of Canada. It was the biggest shipment of overseas mail ever brought to

Yukon Member Passes Through

Returning home to Whitehorse after the recent session of Parliament in Ottawa, J. Aubrey Simmons, member of Parliament for the Yukon, passed through Prince Rupert at the week-end aboard the Princess Norah.

Mr. Simmons, his wife and his mother, Mrs. L. E. Simmons, were visited aboard the vessel by Alderman H. F. Glassey and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Applewhaite, M.P. for Skeena.

The sitting at the Dominion capital went smoothly, Mr. Simmons said jovially, and "we are hoping to get an early start in the New Year." He added that the next session will probably begin anywhere between January 14 and February 17.

"But I think it will commence in February," he said.
