TERRACE VILLAGE COMMISSION SITS

TERRACE — The Village Commissioners met last week in the municipal office. The Women's Institute are to be allowed to leave their belongings in the building near the Civic Centre until next spring when they may resume their activities there and the village will be held responsible for goods left there. The Board of Trade's letter concerning the zoning of the village was tabled until word is received from the Victoria office concerning the zoning by-law. The health unit by-law as re-drafted was given its first reading and the former by-law is to be rescinded. At some future date, the flagpole at the Terrace Hotel is to be moved and placed at the municipal office. George Martin, waterworks contractor, is going to set up a Christmas tree offered by Little, Hauglund and Kerr. The Power Company will supply the energy for the colored light bulbs and holders.

HERRING FLEET SOUTH FOR XMAS

Sleiboots which had been prospecting for herring in this area during the last few weeks and picking up the odd lots here and there have left during the past week for Vancouver and other southern ports for the Christmas and New Year season and will not be returning until January or later, depending on the migratory run develops in these waters. The last recorded take in Prince Rupert fisheries district was some 540 tons in Rivers Inlet.
