O For Rain!

In this fair city of ours, During the present cold spell, Many of us pray for some rain, But skies are as clear as a bell.

Reservoirs are going empty, Our power is cut down low, Coal piles getting smaller, How long this will last, we don't know.

Everyone prays for warmer weather, And that is all anyone can do, But it seems prayers go unanswered, As temperatures drop a point or two.

Everyone hopes for rain clouds, Forecast is for cold and clear, The unemployed line-up gets longer, No break in the weather is near.

We walk about in a coma, Efforts for jobs are in vain, But someday in the sky above us, Will appear a cloud, and with it—RAIN.

For that day we can only wait, Walk around restless, and sigh, I notice I'm not the only one, To walk the street with one eye at the sky.

—J. D. Muzyrowski

WORST MISERIES OF CHILDREN'S
Colds Relieved Overnight
Warming, soothing relief from the misery of children's colds comes quickly when you rub on Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. Often by morning most of the distress of a cold is gone. VapoRub is so effective because of its special double action. First, VapoRub penetrates deep into cold-congested bronchial tubes to relieve congestion... soothe and irritate. At the same time, it stimulates chest and back areas like a warming, comforting poultice. Tonight, use Vicks VapoRub for your child's cold.

Workless In City Fewer

Compared With Year Ago Although Claims Are Risen In January

In spite of an increase of about 400 in unemployment insurance claims in Prince Rupert during the month of January, there are still, considerably fewer claimants this year than there were last, it is reported at the local National Employment Service office.

Due almost entirely to lay-offs at the Columbia Cellulose construction work at Watson Island owing to cold weather conditions, the list of unemployment insurance claimants has risen from between 300 and 400 to between 700 and 800 during the month, it is reported.

Last year at this time between 900 and 1000 were drawing unemployment insurance payments here.
