100 Women At Day of Prayer

There was a record attendance of 100 women at the World Day of Prayer Service at Salvation Army Citadel Friday afternoon. The order of service observed both here and elsewhere had been especially prepared by the founder of a Christian Girl's School in Japan who is herself a Japanese Christian.

The theme was "Faith For Our Time" and the hymns sung, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "Fight the Good Fight" and "The Day Thou Gavest."

The text of Mrs. G. R. S. Blackaby's address was "Thou Wilt Keep Him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on Thee." Emphasis was on the evangelising of children and upon the general theme of prayer.

A solo song by Mrs. Anfield was entitled "The Silent Voice" by Carro Roma. She was accompanied by Mrs. W. D. Smith who was pianist for all the music at the service.

The leader was Mrs. W. C. Poulton and she was assisted in the saying of the prayers by women representing all the churches of the city.

Immigrants Learn Fast

Language Consultant Says Teaching System Uniform

WINNIPEG, P.—Teaching English to immigrants is anything but a routine business.

"Sometimes you can hardly keep up with them," says Florence Gaynor of Ottawa.

Miss Gaynor was in Winnipeg recently to pass on the latest methods of instruction to teachers who are leading 1,100 immigrants through the mazes of the English language.

She is a member of the Canadian Citizenship Council and is a consultant on immigrant education to the federal government. Her services are made available to any department of education or any volunteer organization providing instruction for immigrants.

One of the Citizenship Council's most important achievements to date has been a considerable amount of uniformity in teaching methods across the Dominion, Miss Gaynor says.

"An immigrant can start his classes in Halifax, then be moved to Winnipeg and carry them on there with practically no disruption," she said.

One set of textbooks is used almost exclusively across Canada, developed from a series that originated in Massachusetts.

"Because most of the immigrants are adults, not children, and have had a wide variety of experiences, we find the discussion method of teaching most effective," she said.

One of the teacher's main difficulties is remembering to restrict her own teaching vocabulary to words and sentences the class has learned previously.

A two-year scheme for immigrant education has been worked out by the council and accepted by most Canadian provinces. It calls for one year of language study and one year of citizenship training.

The consultant's own experience with teaching English was with Mennonite colonies in southwestern Saskatchewan. She is on leave to the Citizenship Council from the adult education department of Saskatchewan.
