

SPECIAL FARES FOR STAMPEDE

WINNIPEG—Special railway fares will be available for those attending the Calgary Exhibition and Stampede July 5 to 10. It is announced by R. H. Powers, vice chairman Canadian Passenger Association on behalf of the Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways.

The special fares will apply from all stations in Alberta, Saskatchewan and in British Columbia, Vancouver, Prince Rupert and East and will be based on the one way fare and one third for the round trip.

Tickets will be on sale from July 5 to 9 and on July 10 for trains arriving Calgary not later than 5 p.m. Standard time. Returning passengers may leave Calgary up to midnight of July 12. However, if there is no train service on July 12, tickets will be honored on the first available train.

Prof. I. M. Fraser of the University of Saskatchewan at Saskatoon and Mrs. Fraser, here with the Fisheries Research Board of Canada, are revisiting Prince Rupert for the first time in 20 years and are keenly interested in the changes and improvements to be observed.

Long professor of engineering at the University of Saskatchewan, Prof. Fraser used to spend summers at the Pacific Experimental Station here.

INFLATION, IT SEEMS, HAS STRUCK HOME

The last stronghold against inflation succumbed this week to the overwhelming pressure of rising prices.

The unhappy word is out. A darkness has descended not only on the juvenile world, but on the cherished recesses of the nostalgic adult mind as well. An era has evaporated.

To small fry, it is merely a current tragedy and, therefore, one which is surmountable in the passage of time, but to the adult mind it is a blow against the solid foundations of their youth.

To anyone decrepit enough to recall the days of penny candy, of succulent, one-cent suckers and nickel bags of candy which were entertainment and sustenance for a flawless afternoon, this is indeed a blow against stability.

Two generations of strife and readjustment have seen civilization fall and dynasties crumble. The ways of life of whole continents have changed, but one thing has remained constant. And while it did, the thoughtful and the flighty, the profound and the unbalanced have had a thing to cling to. Now it is gone.

The traditional five-cent cone, so help us, has gone up to six cents!

Decision With Middle Class

Agreed They Will Determine Result of Next British Election

By JAMES MCCOOK
Canadian Press Staff Writer

LONDON—Labor and Conservative party strategists have decided that between 2,000,000 and 3,000,000 uncertain voters, mainly in the middle income group, will determine the result of the 1950 British general election.

The platform of each party is being shaped to appeal to the professional and salaried groups; the inconspicuous, non-trade union families with modest incomes and homes of their own, and the widows, retired business men and self-employed contractors who try to fit tax-trimmed incomes to their needs.

These people have been the backbone of Britain since the continental wars when Napoleon jeered at the "nation of shopkeepers."

War and political change have made the rich poorer, and the worker has gained in income and social security. But the middle class has been squeezed. It tries to cling to its old standards—for instance, to send its children to private schools—but surveys of public opinion unanimously indicate its discontent by revealing complaints about high taxation, increased prices of goods and services and inability to make incomes match rises in living costs.

Millions of middle-class voters are torn between their suspicion of Labor policies like nationalization and their equal suspicion of Conservatives' declarations that they are all for the little man.

When Herbert Morrison, Lord President of the Council, warns his Labor party the 1950 election will be "the greatest fight of our lives," he knows the middle class has given government policies a dour reception.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

The Ketchikan fish packer Sydney, Capt. Osmund Hendrickson, made her first call here in more than a month yesterday, bringing two carloads of bonded American halibut for rail shipment to the eastern United States. Her trip was the first since the Canadian National rail line closed on May 25. She is expected to arrive back in Prince Rupert next Tuesday with another cargo.

the Alaska Highway for Whitehorse. Returning south the vessel will take concentrates to Vancouver for transshipment to Tacoma smelter.

A local notice to mariners says that Point Cumming light in Wright Sound is reported not burning. This light will be attended to as soon as possible.

While the halibut fishing closed season in Area 1A and Areas 3 and 4 will begin at 12 midnight July 11, thus terminating all halibut fishing on the Pacific Coast of Canada and the United States and Alaska, permits for the retention and landing of halibut caught incidentally to fishing for other species with set lines in any area will be valid until 12 midnight November 15.

Northbound from Vancouver to the Alaska ports of Taku and Haines, British Columbia Steamships Ltd. freighter Alaska Prince, Capt. Thomas Garrick, was in port from 5 to 10 o'clock yesterday morning. On the way in here she called at Port Edward and other Skeena River charge 200 tons of supplies for At Taku Landing she will discharge 200 tons of supplies for the Polaris-Taku mine at Tulsequah and at Haines will put off 142 tons of freight for delivery by way of the Haines cut-off of

Have you $10.00 in UNITED STATES Money?

Existing regulations make it illegal for any Canadian resident to retain in his possession more than $10 in United States cash.

You are required to turn in to your bank, for exchange into Canadian money, any amount you have in excess of $10 in United States funds, without delay.

THERE'S A REASON

The reason is that Canada must have the U.S. dollars spent here by tourists, in order to make them available for the payment of imported goods and services needed to keep production and employment at a high level.

EVERYTHING HASN'T RAISED IN PRICE . . .

It may surprise many but 1847 Rogers and Community Silver flatware is the same price as before the war.

And as the tax is now off it should be doubly attractive.

Bulger's always sell standard goods at Canadian advertised prices even though express charges are more than those of places nearer to the factories.

For instance a Big Ben clock or set of silver sells for the same price as in Ontario where it is made.

A large part of our stock is made up of standard advertised goods and we try to keep the balance in line with the prices of other cities. And we guarantee the satisfaction of our goods.

Something from Bulger's is always something worth having.
