with the Communists had been killed. Another Chinese Christian was asked who he followed. He said, "Christ." They asked him what happened to Christ and when he answered that he was crucified they said: "You will die in the same way." And they crucified him.

Mr. Forbes' address brought to a conclusion a supper meeting sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of First United Church.

The forty guests included visiting friends and delegates to the W.M.S. Presbytery and the Prince Rupert Presbytery. Other speakers at this gathering included Mrs. C. W. Hodgson, Rev. W. P. Bunt, and Miss Helen Hurd.

Mrs. C. W. Hodgson, President of the B.C. Conference Branch of the W.M.S., told of the work that the W.M.S. was doing in British Columbia hospitals, schools, settlement and community work. She gave a picture both of the extent and of the varied forms of work done and of the contribution being made to the life of the Church and of the community.

Rev. W. P. Bunt, superintendent of missions for B.C. Conference, reviewed the work of the Home Mission Board. The highlight of his address was the encouraging news that 12 candidates for the ministry had been received in B.C. in the past year.

Miss Helen Hurd, now a W.M.S. worker in Prince Rupert, and formerly a missionary in Japan, spoke of her work among the Japanese in the re-location centres during the war. She told many stories of those who had established themselves across Canada and of the rich contribution they were making to the life of the land in many varied forms of work.

At the Presbytery meeting approval was made of grants by the Home Mission Board to missions of the Presbytery.

Report of the Missionary and Maintenance convener revealed that churches of the Presbytery had increased their contributions to $3,100. On the other hand grants noted for the mission churches exceeded $12,000.

During its business session, the conference voted a loan of $1000 in addition to a grant of $1000 to the Kispiox congregation to assist in the rebuilding of the Kispiox church. The church is to be built with volunteer labor.

The Presbytery approved Rev. R. A. Wilson as United Church chaplain to Miller Bay Hospital.

CANADIANS SHOULD BE MORE PATRIOTIC

In opening, Col. Hoy, who boasts dual nationality—Canadian by birth and South African by long residence—suggested that Canadians should be more articulate in their patriotism and devotion to country. He had noticed a lack in this regard and suggested it might be overcome by more active inculcation of pride of country through medium of the schools and such organizations as the Canadian Club. Col. Hoy gave assurance of the respect and esteem which Canadians enjoyed throughout the world as citizens of their Dominion, the Commonwealth of Nations and the world.

Speaking briefly of British Commonwealth affairs, Col. Hoy saw the assumption of independence by various colonies as a mark of advancement of liberty and freedom within the Commonwealth rather than breaking up of the Empire.

Col. Hoy stated that the form of government in the Dominion of South Africa was somewhat similar to that of Canada. There were three capitals in reality—Capetown, legislative seat; Pretoria, administrative centre, and Bloemfontein, judicial seat.

Col. Hoy described the gold and diamond mining industries, the latter of which was under production quota and market control. There were also the chrome, iron and coal industries.

Going on to the political and governmental set-up, Col. Hoy told of Gen. Smuts' government party, the United Party, the others being the Nationalist party, which had favored a republic, Labor and Dominion. The European people enjoyed the franchise with a limited number of colored people in two of the four states.

There was still a color prejudice which the government was endeavouring to remove by education.

Between the British and African elements of population there were the most cordial of relations but the most serious national problem was that of the Indians, who had been originally imported as farm workers, and who, through inassimilability, had become a "political headache." In 1946, in the attempt to settle the question, certain sections of Natal had been set aside where the Indians might purchase land and whence they might also have representation in Parliament.
