HALLOWEEN PATROL

Editor, Daily News:
With reference to the above may I suggest that members of above would kindly visit, at intervals, up to "curfew time," the totem hill, or outlook, to curb the exuberance of any youth on mischief bent and in order to prevent the destruction of what remains of the railings and seats which were, by the courtesy of the superintendent of the Canadian National Railways, replaced early in the summer but later on were broken up and the pieces thrown over the hill by the hoodlum element of the city. The outlook was fixed up for the enjoyment of visitors, both townsfolk and tourists who come here in summer to take photos and admire the panorama and beauties of the harbor and mountains beyond and the C.N.R. gardens supplied by Nature. Many of the visitors went into ecstasies of delight over the view. Several of the tourists made sketches of the scenery and many were heard to remark how lucky we are to have such a beautiful city. Looked at from the proper perspective, Rupert is a beautiful city.
Thanking you for the space.
