EXCITEMENT IN COMEDY

Rex Harrison and Linda Darnell in "Unfaithfully Yours"

The exciting and fast-moving story of a very sensitive symphony conductor who lets his imagination run riot when he begins to suspect his loving and beautiful wife of being unfaithful, is the basis of "Unfaithfully Yours" a mystery-thriller and romance with comedy situations and music showing tonight and Thursday at Capitol Theatre.

Rex Harrison returns to comedy in the role of the jealously-tortured husband whose highly love triangle he finds himself original plans to resolve the in explodes with riotous results.

Linda Darnell is Harrison's loving and provocative wife whose nocturnal visit to another man's apartment sets off a startling series of events. The role frees Linda from the period costumes she has worn in pictures for the past three years, and the raven-haired beauty has a magnificent wardrobe of luxurious modern clothes and furs. Rudy Vallee plays the pompous millionarie who is Harrison's pet peeve brother-in-law by virtue of his marriage to Linda's bored and saucy sister, portrayed by Barbara Lawrence.

The supporting cast of "Unfaithfully yours" is headed by Kurt Kreuger and includes such comedy favorites as Lionel Stander, Edgar Kennedy, Alan Bridge, Julius Tannen and Torben Meyer.

Marion Birchall, 20, contestant for the "Miss Calgary Stampede" title travelled to Toronto to visit the second Canadian International Trade Fair. Probably with ideas for a new plaid shirt, Marion is admiring the soft folds of material displayed at a British wool exhibit.

WRESTLING CARD HERE JULY 15

Wrestling fans here will have an opportunity to see two out-of-town grunters mingle in the heavyweight ring at the Civic Centre on July 15, according to plans being made. The two contenders will be Jack (The Cat) McLaughlin who is remembered favorably here for past performances and Tarzan Potvin, also of Vancouver, who is making a considerable swathe in the southern city. Both men weigh about 190 pounds.

CLOSE CALL ON ROAD — BRIDES-ELECT HONORED—RUPERT "HOLY NAME" VISIT

Close Call While Working On Road—Brides-elect Honored—Catholic Visitors from Rupert

Frank Gavan of the public works department had a very close call near the Williams Creek bridge on the Lakelse Road last Thursday during the dinner hour when a cable attached to a trea from the caterpillar tractor taunted, striking him in the chest, and catapulting him into the bush. Though suffering from painful internal bruises he was able to drive his truck into town where he is now recuperating under the doctor's care.

Miss E. P. Noel, high school teacher, is leaving Terrace on Thursday to spend her vacation in the south.

Peggy Ann and Ona May Dominato arrived from Prince Rupert to spend the summer vacations with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Houlden.

The wives of the local volunteer fire brigade and Dutch settlers in the district were the guests at a surprise bridal shower honoring Miss Anna Orrd at the home of Mrs. J. H. Smith last Friday evening. The bride-to-be recently arrived in Terrace from Holland and will shortly be married to Mr. Otto van Barnaveld, also a newcomer from Holland who is a member of the fire brigade here. Mrs. Smith received the guests who, during the evening, compiled a "Bride's Comic Scrap Book" from clippings of old magazines. A lovely selection of gifts placed in a decorated basket was opened by the delighed guest of honor. Each guest also gave her a copy of their favorite recipes to introduce cooking to a Dutch bride. Delicious refreshments were then served. Among those present or sending gifts were Mesdames Parmenter, Brackenbury, Kerby, Brandis, Gordon, Norberg, C. Casey, A. Best, Lambley, Fred Smith, I. Frank, Dubeau, S. Campbell, H. Fisher, F. Fisher, H. Smith, Brue, Kalls, E. Haugland, J. H. Smith, and Miss Orrd.

Mrs. David Graf was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at a shower at her home in honor of Miss Lillian Mile whose marriage to Wilfred Haugland will take place in Terrace on July 8. Seated in a decorated chair the bride received a lovely assortment of gifts and this was followed by afternoon tea. Among those present or sending gifts were Mesdames Graf, T. Turner, A. Haugland, E. Haugland, J. Frank, Pache, C. de Kergommeaux, Judd, J. Campbell, McNabb, Kells, Jones, Cole, Siebin, Osborne, A. Harrison, W. Jordon, Misses Mile, E. and I. Haugland, Larson, Murie.

Eighteen members, including the parish priest, Father Rayner, of the Holy Name Society of Prince Rupert, drove into Terrace on Sunday morning and, with the ten members of the Terrace organization, attended High Mass and holy communion at the Catholic church here. Breakfast was served in the rectory with Mrs. A. H. Irving in charge of the kitchen and cooking. Mrs. Vic Giraud was in charge of the tables which were tastefully decorated with white roses and white tapers in silver candelabra. Gloria Irving and Rose Marie Tetrault waited upon the guests. In the afternoon they went out to Lakelse Lake where they had an enjoyable time before returning to Prince Rupert in the early evening.

Voting was slow all day in Terrace on Monday but speeded up towards late afternoon. A total of 586 votes were polled with E. T. Applewhaite getting 434 of them. Little Canyon, a saparate poll for the residents living across the Skeena River had 9 Liberal and 14 C.C.F. All voting was held in the I.O. Hall. Deputy Returning Offi were Mr. Dubeau, L. Casey Green, B. Norberg. Poll Cl were Mary Little, Mrs. de R gommeaux, Mrs. Dover Miss J Kirkaldy. Scrutineers were Squires, Mr. Chapman, Mrs. King, Mrs. Schultzie, A. O H. King, Mrs. Stokes, W. A. patrick and G. Taft.

THE VALUE OF A DIAMOND

Depends more on its perfection and purity than on its size.
It should be pure and clear like water.
It should have no flaws or dark spots.
It should sparkle.
It should be well cut and symetrical in shape.
And of course it should be set in a good looking setting.
Our diamonds are guaranteed perfect and set in well known makes of settings.
Our prices are standard and reasonable.
