good utility man. Morgan, right half, shows that a half back does more than defend. He finds time to force his forwards. Gun-Na-Noot did well at centre half. Alex Young was good in a strange position. Cameron was fast and required watching Vuckovich played well. Pavlikis. as his hat trick indicates, was in a scoring mood. Halverson played a good game and fed W. Gomez, who responded by putting over some nice crosses. For the Motors, Boulter turned in a good game even though four goals were scored against him. Robinson is quickly developing into a fine back and with J. Wilson as a partner they made a resourceful pair. Price played well and cleared strongly. Wellens is a vigorous defender, who can use his height to good advantage. He cleared severa times with his head. Large had a hot handful in Cameron and did well. White got over some good crosses. Pat Wilson was always dangerous and got three goals, the last of which was very well taken.
