Boxing Lights Shining Again

Five Lively Bouts As Northern Sports Club Starts Series

The floodlights gleamed down on five spirited exhibition bouts for some 250 fans Friday night when the Northern Sports Club commenced a series of weekly boxing cards. Manager Norm Applin handled the refereeing and announcing and was assisted by Benny Windle and Stan Schaffe with Sammy Sinclair acting as timekeeper. All were exhibition bouts although one ended up precipitately in the third round because of low blows. That was a scheduled four-round heavyweight affair between Dick Carlson and Pucky Deslauriers. A silver collection realized $50.89.

The bouts:
Mike Ratzko, 160 pounds, vs Bob Scarffe, 165 pounds, five rounds.

Danny Neufeld, 90 pounds, vs Francis Rowe, 90 pounds, three rounds.

Bob Berthelet, 157 pounds, vs Danny Williams, 157 pounds, four rounds.

Jimmy O'Toole, 90 pounds, vs Ralph Wieck, 90 pounds, three rounds.

Dick Carlson vs Pucky Deslauriers, heavyweights.

Big Spring Is Caught Off Dock

A fine 42 pound, 45-inch red spring salmon was caught at Seal Cove here Sunday afternoon. Fishing off the Canadian Fish and Cold Storage Co. dock. Joe Crazes, 1710 Eighth Avenue East, felt a heavy tug at his line.

The fish put up a great fight. At the time, a 12-year-old foster son of Victor King, was passing by in a rowboat. The lad Albert Petersen, was beckoned by Cazzes for assistance in pulling in the fish. Young Petersen, said Cazzes, was frightened for a short while by the size of the salmon but nevertheless aided him in the hooking.

Petersen is a paper delivery boy for the Daily News. Average weight of salmon caught here is 20 to 25 pounds.

DINING-ROOM—This dining-room is being used again this week for the first time since 1941. It is one of the 12 rooms in the ranchhouse on the Duke of Windsor's ranch at Pekisko, Alta., 65 miles southwest of Calgary. The ranchhouse has not been occupied since 1941 when the Duke and Duchess last visited the E.P. ranch in the Rockies foothills. This week they were visiting the ranch again. (C. P. Photo)

Modern Vienna Picture Here

Walter Pidgeon, Janet and Peter Lawford are the three principals in "The Red Danube," exciting drama of postwar Vienna, which is showing tonight and Tuesday at the Capitol Theatre here. An important cast also includes Ethel Barrymore, Angela Lansbury and Louis Calhern.

The story is that of a British colonel who is sent to Vienna to help in the work of repatriating displaced persons. He is accompanied by his young assistant, Peter Lawford, and a pretty senior subaltern, Miss Lansbury. They are billeted in a convent headed by Ethel Barrymore, as the mother superior. Lawford discovers Janet Leigh, lovely Russian ballet dancer who had taken refuge from the Soviets in the convent. Poignant drama ensues with the girl eventually committing suicide while Pidgeon is promoted to brigadier with a happy romantic ending between Lawford and Miss Lansbury. Numerous exciting and thrilling episodes mark the plot.

"Why, thank you, darling! You seem to have lost weight yourself lately."

Shrine Band Scores Hit

The Prince Rupert Shrine Club Band visited Terrace Saturday and scored a real hit. Not only was the concert music a delight to a large audience, the colorful band uniforms were impressive in parade and concert. The band made the trip by motor.

SPORTS
Four Team League Is Likely This Summer

The executive of the Prince Rupert Football Association met yesterday afternoon in the new Canadian Legion building to launch plans for the forthcoming season. It is expected that there will be the same three teams from the city as played in last year's competitions and it is hoped that there may also be a team from Watson Island.

The General Motors will have their young team in the field again, their sponsor Douglas Frizzell having given his "full steam ahead" signal. Darrow Gomez hopes to have his trophy winning outfit assembled again while the Canadian Legion has plans to make a clean sweep.

The question of playing grounds was considered a very important one. The footballers feel that Algoma Park would make a much better playing ground than the Acropolis Hill. They claim that had one-tenth the amount of money spent on Acropolis Hill been put on Algoma Park there would have been a much better playing surface available. The grand stands would not need to be rebuilt every year. The more central location just opposite McClymont Park would attract many more spectators. The park is sheltered.

The annual meeting of the association will be held next Sunday in the Canadian Legion rooms when the recommendations of the executive will be considered by the players and the supporters. The election of officers will be an important feature of the proceedings.

Those present at the meeting were J. S. Wilson, in the chair, Ralph Smith, Darrow Gomez, Jack Davidson and Alex Haig.
