

The Daily News

NORTHERN AND CENTRAL BRITISH COLUMBIA'S NEWSPAPER

Published at Canada's Most Strategic Pacific Port — "Prince Rupert, the Key to the Great Northwest"
VOL. XXXIX, NO. 89. PRINCE RUPERT, B. C., MONDAY, APRIL 17, 1950 PRICE FIVE CENTS

PROVINCIAL LIBRARY,
113
VICTORIA, B. C. MAY 31/50

ORMES DRUGS
Daily Delivery

PHONE 81

British Political War Resumes Tomorrow

British Being Presented By Chancellor On Tuesday

LONDON (CP)—Britain's budget secrets were outlined today in a political climate turned slightly chilly for the Labor government. Sixteen cabinet ministers called at No. 10 Downing Street for a preview of the two-hour budget speech which will be presented in the House of Commons tomorrow at the opening of a new period of strain and anxiety for the government. All members of the cabinet except Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who is ill, attended the traditional eve of budget meeting presented over by Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee.

Wounding Case Is Proceeding

Taking of crown evidence had commenced before Mr. Justice J. M. Coady at the Supreme Court Assizes by noon today when adjournment came in the opening case in which Mike Rozin is charged with unlawfully wounding Oscar Lawrence Dunlop with attempt to murder at Dunlop's logging camp at Crow Lake, Kluksamaten Inlet, March 1. A second count against Rozin is straight unlawful wounding. The jury consists of John MacLeod, foreman, Robert Armstrong, George S. Acton, William W. Bowes, William Scuby, Allan Macdonald, William O. Knight, W. E. Leach, John Henry Willan, David Geary, Jack Jacob Bergesen and Peter Lien. T. W. Brown is prosecuting with R. M. MacLeod acting for the defence.

Fined $100 In Hit-Run Case

A city driver was fined $100 and costs in city police court this morning following an investigation of hit and run case when Fay Gambin, employee for the C.N.R. was struck down. Gambin and fellow employee W. J. Dunn were crossing Second Avenue towards the Prince Rupert Hotel Saturday night on their way to work. A car suddenly appeared, and Dunn grabbed Gambin and attempted to pull him out of the way of the approaching vehicle. The motorist who did not stop was John Haugan.

NO BREAKFAST, GET ULCERS

LONDON—The British Medical Journal says going without breakfast may have something to do with peptic ulcers. A comparative study of two groups helped demonstrate this.

FORMED BY VOLCANOES
Iceland is an island of volcanic origin, and still has many geysers.

French Police, Workers, Fight

PARIS (CP)—Steel-helmeted police today battled workers trying to force their way into state-owned aircraft plant which dismissed all its employees after riots Saturday. About 400 workers, rallied by sirens from the nearby Communist-controlled town of Cenilly, hurled sticks and other missiles at a detachment of 150 policemen barring their way into the Sncema plant. Hand-to-hand fighting began as reinforcements and security guards carrying rifles and gas masks. Three demonstrators were injured.

Dies Suddenly—

Chief Engineer Storage, Dies

John E. Boddie Expires While Visiting Friend
Chief engineer for the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. here and resident of Prince Rupert for forty-three years, John Edwin Boddie died suddenly Sunday afternoon. He was visiting at the chicken ranch of an old friend, Robert McKay, when he was stricken with a heart attack and expired.

Mr. Boddie was sixty-two years of age and was born in Belfast, Ireland. A widow and two daughters and one son survive. The daughters are Mrs. D. C. Stevenson of Prince Rupert and Mrs. Richard M. Burnett of Vancouver. The son is Robert Boddie of Prince Rupert. Mr. Boddie was an active member of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, particularly in connection with highway matters. He took a keen interest in public and community affairs.

Window Sale By United Church

Another of those popular snow window church sales which catch the patronage of the Saturday morning shoppers was held at Gordon & Anderson's store by the Women's Auxiliary of First United Church. Many tempting culinary articles were put on display and were readily sold. Mrs. M. Heise was convener and her assistants during the day were Mrs. Richard Pollock, Mrs. Tony Bussanich, Mrs. F. Huber, Mrs. W. D. McAra and Mrs. Doumont.

NO PASSPORTS FOR HONOLULU

VANCOUVER—Canadians travelling to Honolulu on the Empress air craft of Canadian Pacific Airlines will, in future, not have to have either passport or visa.

Social Credit Has Ambitions

WINNIPEG—Canada's Social Credit party, at its conference here, decided to make a bid for power on a national scale. Diminution of interest in the C.C.F., presently torn between right left influences, is one of the factors in the new activity of Social Credit which will hold a national convention in Regina or Saskatoon when monetary and economic reform will be the principal subjects of debate.

CANADIAN PRESS NOW UNIONIZED

OTTAWA—The Canada Labor Relations Board announce the American Newspaper Guild (CIO) has been certified as collective bargaining agent for a unit of editorial employees of the Canadian Press.

BISHOP-ELECT OF SASKATOON—Rev. S. C. Steer, M.A., D.D., principal of Emmanuel Theological College at the University of Saskatchewan, has been elected Bishop of the Anglican diocese of Saskatoon. At his request, he was granted a month in which to make acceptance. (CP Photo)

PRIME MINISTER IN BERMUDA—Canada's Prime Minister, Hon. Louis St. Laurent, is shown here at the Mid Ocean Club in Tucker's Town, Bermuda, where he was vacationing until April 15. On his vacation, Prime Minister St. Laurent was accompanied by his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh O'Donnell of Montreal, and another daughter, Mrs. Frank Lasseity, also of Montreal. (CP Photo)

Wheat Movement Is On Increase

VANCOUVER—Shipments of wheat from Vancouver and New Westminster continue to steadily increase. For the period August 1, 1949 to March 9, 1950, 38,575,636 bushels were exported from these two ports compared with 26,707,586 bushels during the previous crop year. Wheat clearances for the week ended March 9, 1950 totalled 1,104,987 as compared with 884,550 for the same period a year ago.

OTTAWA FIRE FATAL TO TWO

OTTAWA—A woman and her three-year-old son were burned to death when fire early Saturday destroyed a house in the Sandy Hill section of the city.

LOCAL TIDES

Tuesday, April 18, 1950
High 1:42 21.1 feet
14:14 19.2 feet
Low 8:08 3.1 feet
20:06 6.2 feet

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
Most of British Columbia is enjoying bright sunshine today in the wake of the sharp storm which swept through the southern half of the province yesterday. The southern valleys during the night at the height of the storm reported hail, thunderstorms and near hurricane winds while at the same time snow was being reported from the Cariboo. The present fine weather will continue for today and most of tomorrow with a few showers restricted to more mountainous areas. A band of rain over the ocean to the south-west will bring increasing cloudiness to the coast tomorrow afternoon with a likelihood of rain by tomorrow evening. Regional forecasts valid until midnight Tuesday.

Forecast
North Coast Region—A few clouds today. Scattered showers along the mainland. Mostly clear overnight. Increasing cloudiness tomorrow with rain commencing by evening. Little change in temperature. Light winds. Lows tonight and highs tomorrow—At Port Hardy, 40 and 50; Sandspit and Prince Rupert 35 and 50.

GORY INEBRIATE IN POLICE TOILS

James McIntyre hit the bottle a little too hard and, due to his inebriated condition, his feet were not able to support the body. He, therefore, fell flat on his face. His nose became strongly mated with the floor resulting in a bloody and bruised mass. City ambulance was immediately summoned and drove him via hospital to the police station. Before Magistrate W. D. Vance, he was fined $15 and $3.50 costs.

Boy Struck By Hit and Runner

A 14 year old native boy, employed at Miller Bay Hospital was admitted to General Hospital shortly after 11:30 p. m. Saturday after being struck by a car in front of the Prince Rupert Hotel on Second Avenue.

Dr. J. A. Macdonald, attending physician, said today that the lad suffered concussion and was discharged Sunday. He returned to work this morning. The car, which struck the lad did not stop and police are investigating.

Harry Lumley Hero of Game

TORONTO (CP)—Harry Lumley got his third shut-out in the Stanley Cup series this year on Saturday night as the Detroit Red Wings overpowered the New York Rangers 4 to 0 before 13,781 fans. Detroit now leads the best of seven series two games to one. The agile Lumley, veteran of six years National Hockey League play at 23 years of age, stopped 24 shots.

Calgary Has Easy Victory

CALGARY (CP)—Calgary Stampeders ran wild Saturday night as they trampled the hapless Fort Frances Canadians 11 to 9 in the first game of the best of seven Western Canada Allan Cup finals.

WESTMINSTER IS OPENER WINNER

LOS ANGELES (CP)—Hermie Gruhn fired three goals Saturday as the New Westminster Royals edged Los Angeles Monarchs 6 to 4 in the first of their best of seven Pacific Coast Hockey League final.

AMAZON EMPIRE

The Amazon River basin covers an area of 2,722,000 square miles.

Beau Jack Is Fight Winner

WASHINGTON, D.C. (CP)—Former lightweight champion Beau Jack was awarded a technical knockout victory in the sixth round over Lew Jenkins of Philadelphia Friday night. The fight was stopped midway in the fifth frame when Jack pounded a hard right below the belt and Jenkins fell to the canvas. After a five-minute pause, the fight was awarded to Beau Jack when Jenkins' handlers would not let him continue.

Used Fish Hooks To Make Burglary

TORONTO—A tailoring establishment here was visited by a burglar. He forced a hole in the roof of a Bay Street store, lowered a hooked fishing line through the opening and fished out no fewer than fifteen suits of men's clothing.

Capt. Gus Mostad Back From Norway

Gus Mostad, one of Prince Rupert's well known halibut boat skippers, returned home a few days ago after his first revisitation of his native Norway since coming to this country thirty-five years ago. With Mrs. Mostad he got back last week and, with the rest of the local halibut fleet, is now readying his boat Arctic for the coming season.

Central point of Capt. Mostad's visit was the village of Vaerov, near the city of Buda in the Lofoten Islands, well up the Norwegian coast, where his mother and brothers and sisters reside. They were away for six months.

BRITISH LIBERALS GO CONSERVATIVE

LONDON—A political sensation occurred last Friday when two leading members of the House of Lords went over to the Conservative party in view of "the grave menace of Socialist rule." They were the Marquis of Reading, 61, and Lord Rennell, 54-year-old banker.

Port Day May Go Overboard

Unless more interest is shown, Port Day will go by the board as far as the Junior Chamber of Commerce is concerned, Chairman Stuart Furk said following an organizational meeting for the event which was called for last Thursday night and which only three citizens attended. Present were Mr. Furk, Secretary Ed Mussallem and R. G. Moore, Gunnar Selvig and Rudolph Olsen.

It was decided to call another meeting for this Thursday. Whether Port Day is proceeded with will depend on the response to that meeting.

ENTIRE CREW OF TRAIN DISMISSED

OTTAWA—An entire train crew with the exception of the conductor has been dismissed from the C.N.R. service. There had been a passenger train collision, in which seven were injured. A train had run through red stop signals during a blinding snowstorm. The conductor will be questioned when the recovers from a heart attack.

MATRIARCH OF KINCOLITH—Mrs. Selma Nelson, one of the links with the aboriginal past of this district, passed away at Kincolith on the Naas River last week at the age of 88 years. Widow of Cornelius Nelson, who died years ago, she was Kincolith's oldest woman. She was born in that village. An officer and active workers for the Salvation Army, her funeral was conducted from the Anglican Church with Rev. A. V. Ottiwell, the resident missionary, officiating.

Cases Assizes

Civil and Divorce Coming Up

Session of Supreme Court Assizes commenced with J. M. Coady presiding. Five criminal cases dealt with in addition to civil actions and six divorces. Two civil appeals scheduled.

Day of court began with trial of Mike Rozin, attempted murder. The crown are T. W. Brown, R. M. MacLeod and counsel.

Separate charges of entering of city and over the Christmas will come next. Cases are laid against Knight and Stewart. Former Columbia College. Thomson will prosecute. MacLeod as defense.

Three separate charges to the breaking and entering of the Anderson and Philander Company.

Initial cases to be heard in an indecent assault against Ellis Brown will act as a defense. Counsel named. Peter Harvey with T. W. Brown as counsel and Carl Olson with T. W. Brown as counsel. In the R. M. MacLeod will act as defense.

Case is E. B. Thomson vs M. M. J. B. Goodwill. Counsel is T. W. Brown. MacLeod for the defense.

Regarding the estate of the Clark King Sealy, lawyer as solicitor for the estate, will be heard.

Divorce cases: Pettitioner; Fay respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Colin Davies, petitioner; Elizabeth Davies, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Moore, petitioner; Moore, respondent.

Elaine, petitioner; Elaine, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Colin Davies, petitioner; Elizabeth Davies, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Moore, petitioner; Moore, respondent.

Elaine, petitioner; Elaine, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Colin Davies, petitioner; Elizabeth Davies, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Moore, petitioner; Moore, respondent.

Elaine, petitioner; Elaine, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Colin Davies, petitioner; Elizabeth Davies, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Moore, petitioner; Moore, respondent.

Elaine, petitioner; Elaine, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.

Colin Davies, petitioner; Elizabeth Davies, respondent.

Norman Fossum, petitioner; Fossum, respondent.