Oddfellows, Terrace, Here

Harry King, district deputy grand master from Terrace, and other Oddfellows from Terrace were in Prince Rupert last night to take part in the installation of officers of the local lodge. The new Noble Grand here is Fred Green. Mr. King and his party arrived yesterday afternoon and returned to the interior this morning. They included Jack Barman, R. W. Beecher, William Unger, Emu Haugland and James Kohne.

RADIO LICENCES

Some 2,309,000 broadcast receiving licences, including 221,115 television licences, were current in the London postal region at the end of April, 1950.

Ray Reflects and Reminisces

Time does slip along. In Monday's News appeared a report of a meeting held here in 1924. Premier King spoke. There were fourteen persons, all in vigorous middle life, on the stage of the Westholme Theatre. Twenty-six years ago and all but four have passed on.

Numerous tourists are said to be cancelling the annual tour north, because of the trouble in Korea. Forget it. There were plenty, between 1939 and 1945, when there was real war. No one ever heard a shot unless some Californian wanted a bear-skin.

Eighty lakes, sixteen bays, fourteen islands, two rivers, three creeks and a ridge have been named in honor of pioneers of prominence, and war veterans in Northern Saskatchewan. This is a worthwhile practice. It gives a certain distinction, and an abiding interest nothing else can.

Indian Supplier Doing 2 Months

William Leake was fined $50 and costs or one month's imprisonment, on each of two counts of supplying liquor to Indians in Magistrate W. D. Vance's court. He chose imprisonment.

The charges arose from supplying an Indian man and woman with intoxicating liquor. He pleaded not guilty to the charges but the court found him guilty on both counts.

An Indian man and woman were each fined five dollars plus the time served for being intoxicated.

low, "Ten Mile Creek" or "Crow Hill" and scatter them over this land of magnificent distances and vistas.

"Every Southern British Columbian who has a car might well plan a two-week motor trip to Prince Rupert. It can be done in four days from Vancouver and maybe some of the local talent can do it in less but for real enjoyment a week each way would be better. The roads are so good."

So writes Bill Rose, farm editor of the Vancouver Sun, and we'll bet he knows his stuff.

The warehouse built by the U.S. Army here continues to be dismantled. It had been suggested that demolition be delayed a while, in view of the Korea crisis, but evidently it is not thought warranted. And, incidentally, Edmonton is getting a lot of high class, well seasoned lumber.

August fifth has always been the opening of navigation date at Port Churchill, whether suitable or not. It may be a few days earlier this season. What is wanted is flexibility in the matter of dates, which means planning, hoping, running risks and taking chances. What a contrast with Prince Rupert where ships come and go every day in the year and where a modern grain elevator waits through the years, seemingly unnoticed, and certainly unused.

The first applicant here to enlist in the Royal Canadian Navy is a cook. He's an important man in any navy, army, or air force—anywhere in the world in war or in peace. How well the cook performs his job has more to do with how things go than a lot of us think! If we do think: How many of us know that indigestion is supposed to have helped in the downfall of Napoleon?

The Statue of Liberty in New York harbor is the work of the Alsatian sculptor, Frederic Auguste Bartholdi, who died Oct. 1, 1904.

Modern Etiquette

Q. Would it be all right for a member of the family of a bride-to-be to give a shower for her?

A. No; it is a poor taste to do so, and is nothing less than an indirect demand that her friends give something to her.

Q. If a hostess has no servants and has many duties to perform, should a house guest clean her own room?

A. Yes. Under these circumstances there would be no excuse for her not dusting her own room and making her bed.

Q. Is there any certain hour that is the most correct for a wedding to take place?

A. No; any hour that is most convenient for the persons concerned is permissible.

Inspection Of Highway

At the invitation of the contractors, Wood & McClay, who have the reconstruction of the 5-mile section of highway between the city limits and Gallop Rapids in hand, representatives of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, city council and other interested persons including provincial government and concerns using the road for industrial traffic will make an inspection of the piece of highway the passability of which has been brought under question.

The trip arises out of the recent criticism which was made to the Department of Public Works at Victoria by the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce, with which protest the city council later agreed but with which the public works department and the contractors have taken issue.

Those making the tour of the road tomorrow will include Mayor G. W. Rudderham, President L. M. Felsenthal of the Prince Rupert Chamber of Commerce; Hugo Kraupner, chairman, and J. H. Black, G. P. Lyons and Peter Gamala of the Chamber of Commerce highway committee; J. D. McRae M.L.A.; H. W. Stevens, district engineer; Harold Whalen, representing Nelson Bros. Ltd., and Mr. Dowell, representing Columbia Cellulose.

Latest development in the controversy over the state of the highway has been a letter from the reconstruction contractors, Wood & McClay, discussing some of the major problems which they have had to contend with in keeping the road open and passable while the work has been under way.

The contractors state that they have endeavored to co-operate in every way in the handling of traffic and "at no time have we held any one up for more than one hour and so minutes and this only after an unavoidably large blast. Delays ordinarily, they say, are only a matter of minutes. Since they are at present losing 25 per cent of operating time due to allowing traffic to pass shovels and interfere with hauling equipment, it may yet be necessary, as is done elsewhere, to hold up traffic for a minimum, say, of two hours.

Since detour roads have been impracticable owing to the rock and muskeg, the company has endeavored to maintain the present old road for traffic of weight which it was never intended to carry. Damage to the road by this cause, it is suggested, might have been due to the heavy vehicles.

Other causes for temporary poor conditions, the contractors suggest as new construction soft spots pending compacting and the weather to say nothing of equipment breakdown and labor turnover factors. Impracticability of constant grading is also discussed in the contractors' letter.
