

Novel Talk On Education

Famous Quotation Applied
by Principal Hurst in Talk

With an ingenious application to the broad aims of his subject of the famous quotation from Lewis Carroll, "The Time has come the Walrus Said, to talk of many things," A. M. Hurst, principal of Booth Memorial High School, gave the Prince Rupert Gyro Club, at its weekly luncheon yesterday, a novel dissertation on what he considered the principal aims of secondary school education. He defined the secondary school as "a place in which to keep young people busy while in the difficult process of growing up."

He applied the "shoes" of his quotation to the choice of vocation—into whose "shoes" the young people were going to step. He alluded to four "ships"—friendship, the forming of associations that would be lasting through life and which would teach the faculty of working together; sportsmanship, the ability to "take it" in life; scholarship, the habit of doing ones best, the assuming of responsibility and fulfilling it with ability—all combined into citizenship with its varied ramifications.

ESKIMOS AUDITIONED BY NAVY MEN—Canadian sailors aboard the R.C.N. frigate Swansea during her cruise to northern waters were surprised to find that Eskimos at Hebron, Labrador, are Able Seamen Ronald Knapman, left, Saint John, N. B.; and Reginald H. Rhymes of Dartmouth, being entertained by the Moravian mission organist at Hebron, Labrador. Swansea returned to Halifax Sept. 28 after a successful five-week cruise, which familiarized officers and men with Arctic sailing conditions.

Athlete's Foot A New Concentrated Prescription Found

Athlete's Foot is a fungus condition which is very contagious—it is one of the most persistent skin eruptions known. A new concentrated prescription has been found which will destroy all odor and by consistent use, night and morning, will relieve it. This prescription has been thoroughly tested and has shown remarkable results, even in long standing cases. It is a clear, odorless and colorless liquid and contains no oil or grease, clothing and linens cannot be stained or marked. Application is simple. Wash your feet night and morning with warm water and pure soap. The prescription, Exoff Concentrated, is then patted on with a small swab of cotton, and allowed to dry.

Your druggist can supply you with this prescription, simply ask for about 3 ozs. of Exoff Concentrated and if your skin is tender or gets dry, you should also obtain 1/2 oz. of Exoff Ointment. You may like to cut this article out—it is well worth a trial.
