

Waterfront Whiffs

Herring Running In This Area-Flat Fishing Resumes-Halibut Fishing Changes Are Mooted E Z

DOUBLE DAILY The west coast herring fishery, which so far this season is greater than for any corresponding period AIR SERVICE since 1944, has expended to the north coast this week ANTICIPATED with reports of the first catches of the 1949 spawning Confirming an earlier staterun in this area.

A relatively small amount of the migratory fish Burns, traffic representative, new keel and extensive replankwere delivered Thursday to Nelson Bros reduction plant at Port remained untouched for several the Public Relations Council diesel engine and other recon-Edward, first delivery of the years. migratory variety this season. From their experience, the trips between Prince Rupert and will be carried out and it is ex-Small deliveries of local herring fishermen believe that the hali- Vancouver may be scheduled by pected another month will be have been landed frequently but which are on the banks Canadian Pacific Air Lines next required before the vessel is during the fall and early winter. early in the season are a younger summer to take care of an an- ready for sea again. One boat made a 130-ton catch grouping of fish than those ticipated increase in travel. Mr.

from a set in Surf Inlet, near which appear in July and Aug- Burns spoke briefly at the coun-Butedale this week. On Friday, ust. Because the season has been cil's annual meeting. two vessels made sets in Ogden so short during the last few No definite policy had been Channel, near Captain's Cove, years, the latter age group of laid down in this regard. he said, but no reports on their success fish have not been caught. but it was believed that, in order shed.

FIFTY VESSELS AT DRY DOCK FOR OVERHAUL; 75 MEN ARE EMPLOYED With repair of the 125-foot Ketchikan motorship freighter Discoverer, which was wrecked and sunk down the coast from here two-and-a-half months ago, still the major job in hand, some fifty-five vessels are undergoing overhaul at the local dry dock and there are more on the waiting list, Superintendent

> Robert Cameron states. Most of these vessels are fishing craft in the yard for annual repair and reconditioning work.

TONIGHT -

SUNDAY MI

TIDE

FORD • KEYES

A FAMOUS PLAYERS THEATRE

The Mating

COMING MONDAY -

EVELYN

DON CASTLE

LEE TRACY

____ in ____

GLEN'N 🕷

'HIGH

JUDY GARLAND

and

TUESN

"EASTER PARADE

The Discoverer on Wednesday came off the pontoons following the completion of a big job of ment in the Daily News, A. V. hull repairs which included a Canadian Pacific Air Lines. told ing. New interior work including

One of the larger fishing vessel overhaul jobs is that on the Ingrid H., Capt. Carl Lundquist, which is out at the big ship-

VETERAN SAILOR-Captain John Carnegie of Kingston, Ont., one of the oldest Great Lakes mariners, celebrated his 84th birthday this week. After a colorful career on the lakes and the St: Lawrence, Capt. Carnegie retired several years ago. Shown here discussing with their father the features of a model boat are his two sons, R. Kenneth, left, Ottawa superintendent of The Canadian Press and Roy Carnegie of Kingston.

COTTAGE CHEESE New Creamed - Fresh Made VALENTIN DAIRY Your Daily

ALL-WEATHER SERVICE

charged. With our scientific instruments and the HOW of our mechanics, we can do a better job. Pho-

INDCAN HOTODC III MOTORS LI