JUST A LITTLE GIFT FROM ALY TO RITA—A view of Carton House in County Kildare, which Prince Aly Khan has purchased as a gift to Rita Hayworth, who became his bride recently on the Riviera. Carton House is the ancestral home of the Duke of Leinster and is an exact copy of Leinster House, Dublin, where the Irish parliament meets.

FELSENTHAL TO LEAD CAMPAIGN

Accepts Chairmanship of Salvation Army Drive With Applewhite, Blackaby Assisting

Acceptance by Louis M. Felsenthal of chairmanship of the local Red Shield campaign this year is announced by Major W. Yurgensen, local commandant. The campaign opens September 1 and Edward T. Applewhite, M.P.-elect, has again consented to undertake the position of publicity chairman with G. R. S. Blackaby volunteering to act as treasurer.

The quota for Prince Rupert will be $6000 and the campaign will be conducted along lines similar to those of past years. The latest institution to be opened by the Salvation Army is Sunset Lodge, home for aged women in New Westminster, which is already full to capacity and for which there is a substantial waiting list. In addition, six other institutions are serving the people of British Columbia from infancy to old age. In one year admission was granted persons from fifty-seven separate British Columbia towns to Maywood Home associated with Grace Hospital.
