

Russia Called Upon To Cease Hate Campaign

Council Kills Power Company Referendum

Dollar Expenditure in Further Development Hinted by Alderman-Manager

That Northern B. C. Power company is a "large expenditure" to expand its plant in the Prince Rupert district was given in city council tonight by Alderman T. B. Black who spoke for the city of Power Co. manager.

Alderman H. M. Daggett argued that a referendum to determine the ratepayers' Power Commission electrical services the present contract Northern B. C. Power Co. Black objected to Alderman's motion on council had no to put such a question without consulting the views of the Power Co. which had a signed agreement with the city of Prince Rupert.

SUPPLIERS GONE, INDIANS SOBER

Prosecution of persons supplying liquor to Indians has resulted in a marked decrease in drunkenness among the native population during the last 12 months. Sgt. L.A.N. Potterton reported in his latest summary of police activities which was approved by city council last night.

The report listed 162 prosecutions in police court during September, of which 161 resulted in convictions. Fines and court costs collected amounted to $2,093.

MUNICIPAL IODE CHAPTER MEET

Monthly meeting of Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E. heard a report of success of its recent tag day in support of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind and laid plans for its fall bazaar at the Civic Centre on November 24.

BOARD REQUESTS CROSSING ZONE

A request from the Prince Rupert and District School Board asking that city council have the intersection of Sixth Avenue East, Donald Street and Ambrose Avenue designated a school crossing zone was referred to the board of works with power to act last night.

ESTABLISHMENT OF COASTGUARD

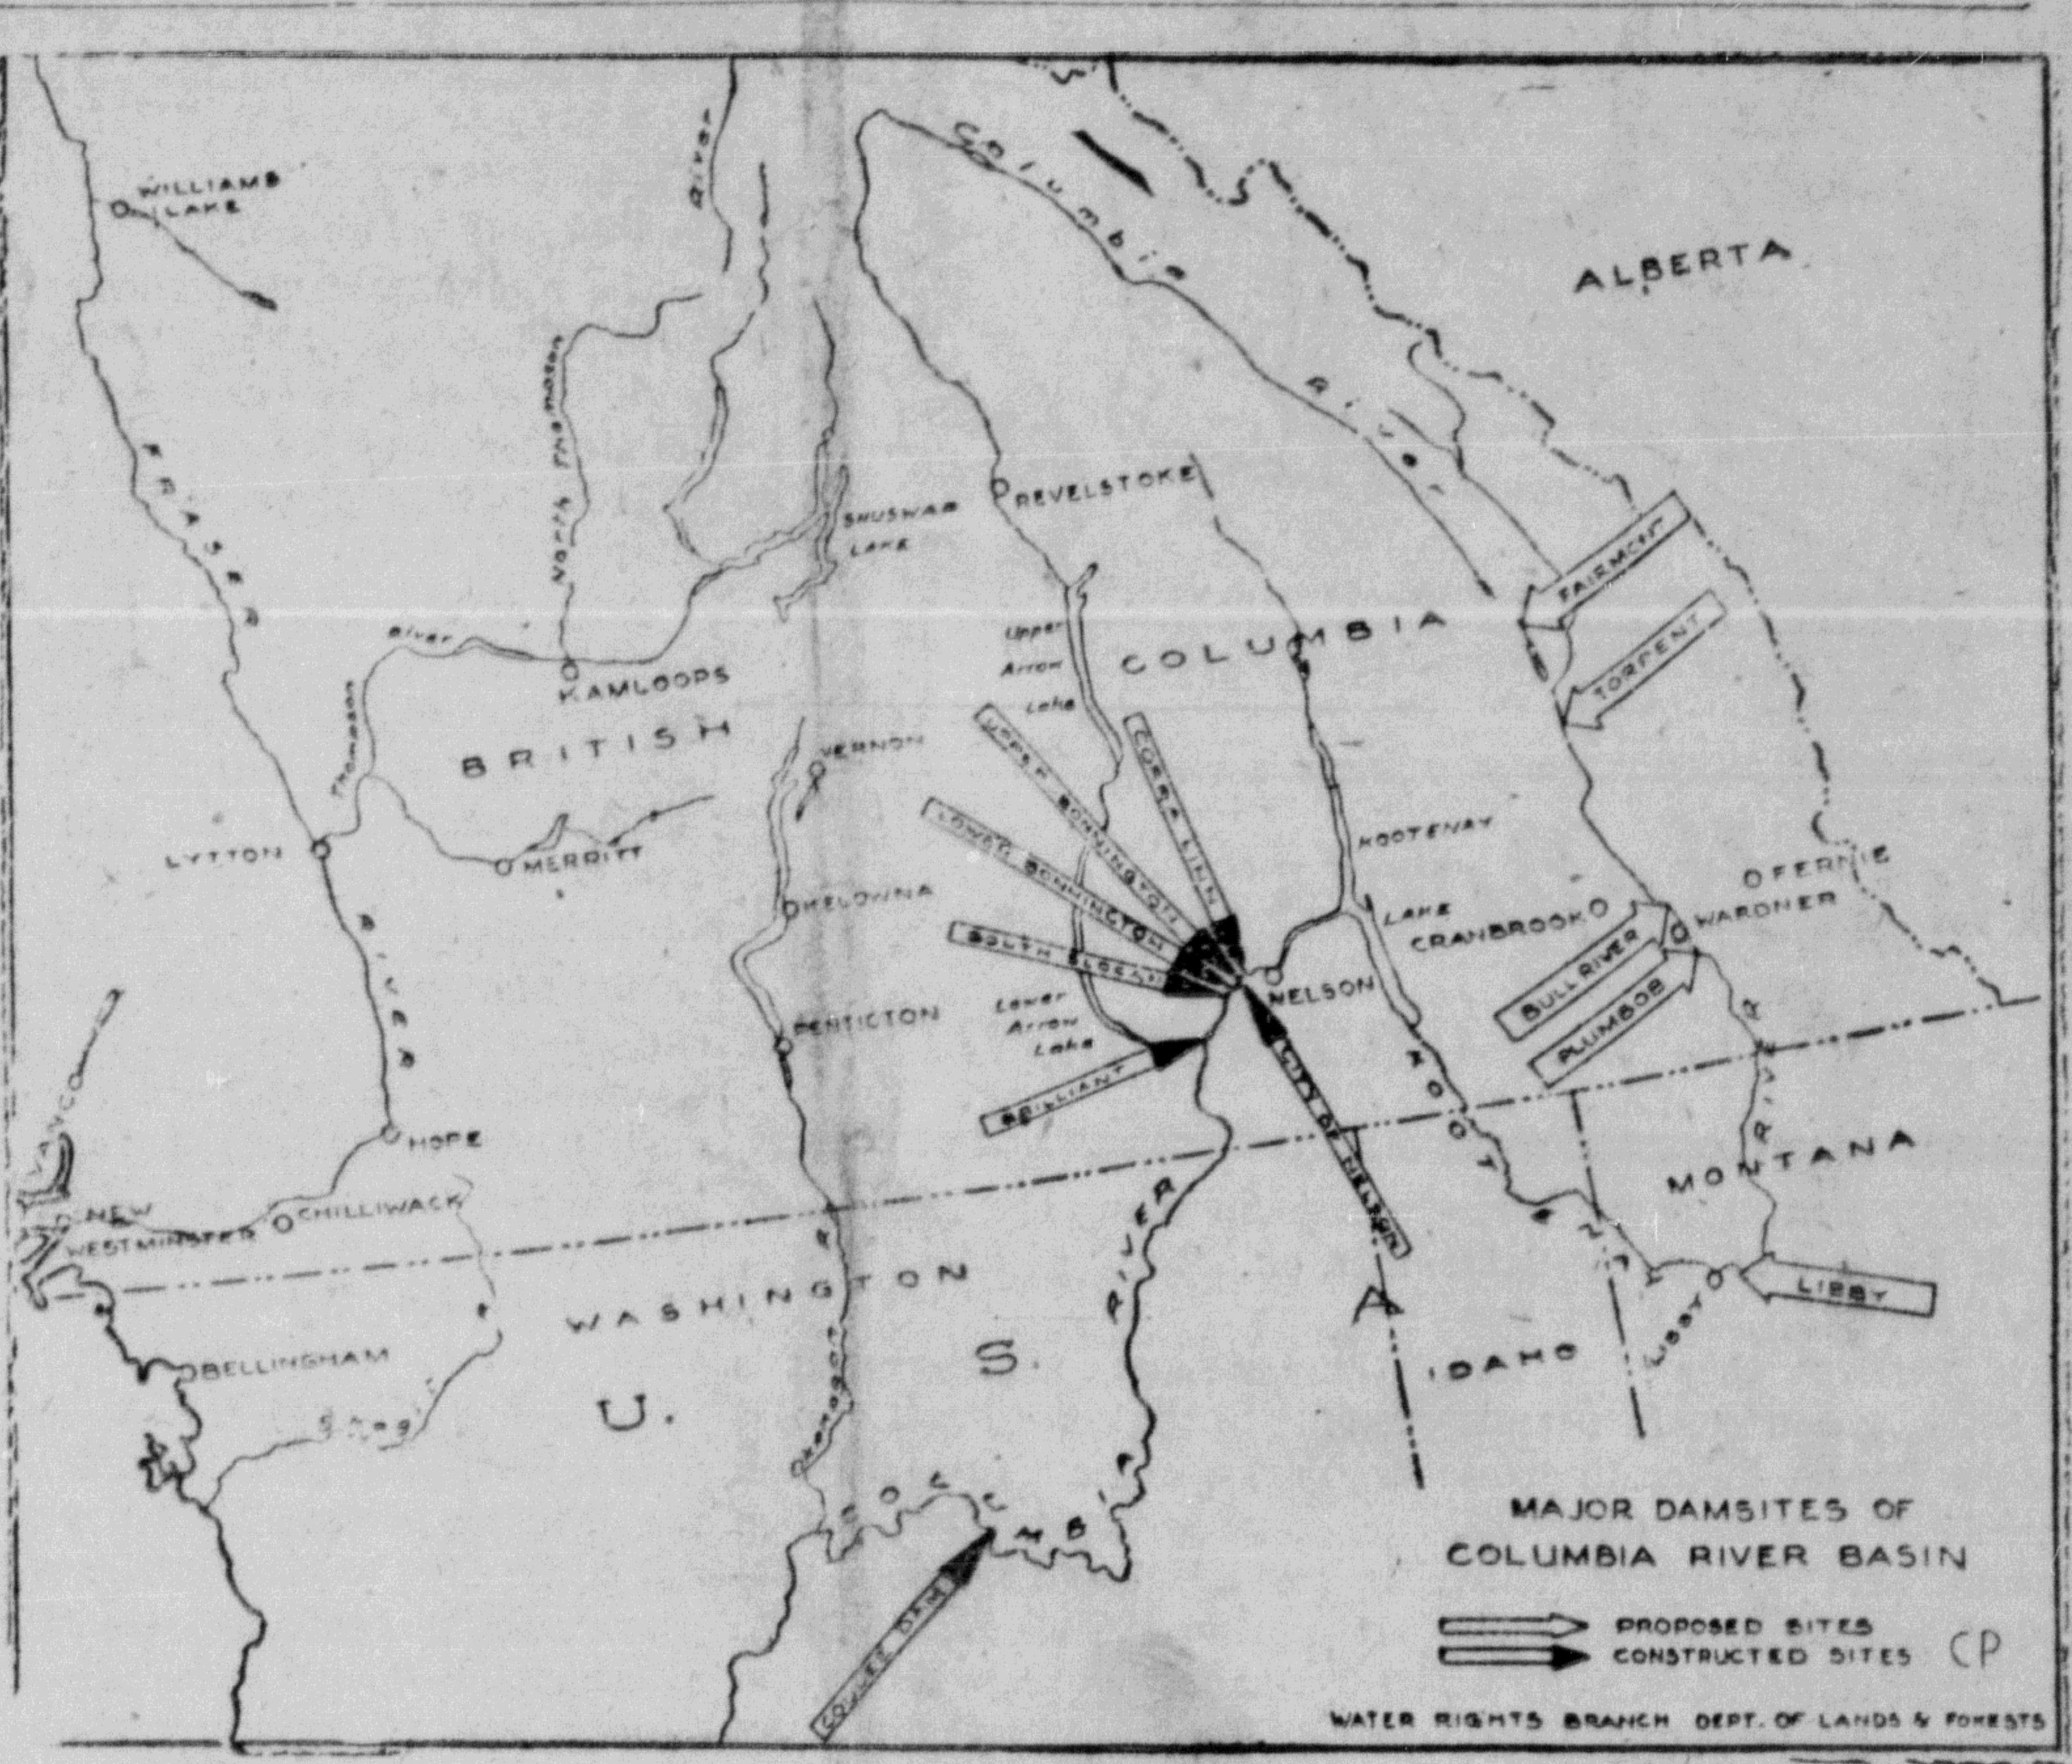

Establishment of a Canadian Coast Guard Service is being given active consideration by the federal government and at the present time a committee has been set up to consider the co-ordination of existing rescue services and allied functions with a view to improvement.

COMMITTEE TO CONFRONT DOGS

City council figuratively went to the dogs last night but failed to find any solution to the problem of what to do with Prince Rupert's footloose canine population, other than referring it to the licensing committee.

DISPENSERS HONOR RETIRING PRXIE

As he retired from the office of president, James Andrew was made the recipient of a silver comb, cigarette case and other from his fellow workers of the Beverage Dispensers' Union. The presentation was made with expressions of suitable sentiments by the new president, T. Johnson.

POWER FOR B. C.—Opportunities for power development and flood control in interior British Columbia will be offered by construction of a 425-foot dam at Libby, Mont., lower right, as first of a series of dams to be built on the Kootenay River. The project, carried on jointly by the governments of the United States, Canada and British Columbia, will include a second dam at either Plumbob, Bull River or Tortent, B. C. This map also shows complete dams on both sides of the international boundary on the Columbia River. (CP Photo)

Peace Challenge Is Delivered to Soviet

LAKE SUCCESS (CP)—Great Britain and the United States Monday called on Russia to halt her "campaign of hate" against the world and co-operate on a twelve-point resolution designed to bring permanent peace.

Central Interior Would Be Tributary To Vancouver In Plan Of Canadian National

A large scale terminal development here by the Canadian National Railways, including extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway from its present terminus at Squamish to North Vancouver, is reported under consideration by the federal government.

Bulletins

OPPOSE RATE HIKE

OTTAWA—Thirty-two western Liberal members of Parliament have signed a declaration opposing any move to remove special low freight rates on grain. Among them was E. T. Applewhite, M. P. for Skeena.

P.G.E. STEEL LAYING

PRINCE GEORGE—First steel was laid at a point three miles north of Quesnel on the extension of the Pacific Great Eastern. It may be necessary to stop work owing to severe winter weather but grading south of Prince George is expected to continue.

SHIPPING STRIKE

NEW YORK—A widespread shipping strike on the Atlantic seaboard and Gulf of Mexico may commence tonight unless there is a settlement of the dispute between masters and mates and companies.

EUROPE MUST LOWER PRICES

WASHINGTON D. C.—President Truman today sent to Congress a Marshall Plan report declaring that Europe must lower its prices to compete in the United States market for the American consumer dollar.

"LAW BREAKING" BY GOVERNMENT

OTTAWA—Charges of deliberate law-breaking and suppression covered by " lame" excuses were hurled at the government yesterday as the House of Commons argued for seven-and-a-half hours on the principle of a bill to plug loopholes in Canada's anti-price-fixing legislation.

Chelohsin Is Total Loss

VANCOUVER—Declared a "total loss" by insurance underwriters, the Union Steamships coastal liner Chelohsin will be scrapped.

EASY WIN FOR MANUEL ORTIZ

PARIS—Manuel Ortiz world's bantamweight champion from El Centro, California, Monday night outpointed Théo Medina of France in a non-title ten-round bout.

THE WEATHER

Synopsis
The weather outlook for British Columbia has improved overnight with the weakening of a weather disturbance which is centered in the Gulf of Alaska. Along the coast variable cloudiness is expected today and tomorrow while in the interior skies will be mainly sunny.

PROTEST RUM IN CAKE OF PRINCE

LONDON—Buckingham Palace declined to comment today on a protest by the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Vancouver against the use of rum in baking Prince Charles' first birthday cake.

Relieving of Housing

Canada to Get 96,000 New Units This Year, Minister Reports
OTTAWA—Hon. R. H. Winters, minister of reconstruction, told the House of Commons today that he estimated 96,000 housing units will be completed this year, the first in which some reduction will be made in the backlog of housing needs.

ARCTIC ARRIVALS—A doctor, missionary and three Eskimo children were passengers aboard the Transport Department icebreaker N. B. McLean which docked at Quebec this week from its annual patrol of the Hudson Bay shipping lanes to Churchill. Dr. Bernard Laramee, left, of Montreal was aboard in his capacity as physician for the Indian Affairs Department. Father Marcel Rio, left his mission at Southampton Island after a three-year stay. The Eskimos were brought out for medical care and study. (C. P. Photo)

Prince Rupert Symphony Concert

at CIVIC CENTRE
Friday, November 18th
8:15