Steve Ferris On Way Home

Attended PNWT Convention
—To See Start of $1,750,000 Apartment at Ketchikan

After attending the Pacific Northwest Trade Association quarterly meeting in Vancouver as representative of the Ketchikan Chamber of Commerce, L. S. Ferris, prominent pioneer business man of Ketchikan, was a passenger aboard the Prince Rupert yesterday returning north. He reports a successful meeting with a larger turn-out than ever, indicating the growth of the organization. Alaska and Northern British Columbia figured prominently in the discussions.

He is a member of the executive of P.N.W.T.A. F. M. Dockrill of Telkwa was the delegate from this district to the convention and Mr. Ferris met him.

Mr. Ferris will be back in Ketchikan in time to see the start made on pouring of concrete for the new $1,750,000 108-unit apartment hotel which is to be built with federal guarantee of his financing. It will be a six-story structure and the contract has been let to E. C. Baldwin Inc., Seattle contractors, who are just completing the building of "The Nettleton," one of Seattle's largest new apartments.

The new Ketchikan apartment will be known as "Ferris Court." Mr. Ferris has been spending three months in Seattle.
