VICTORIA REPORTS

couldn't get him out of it.

Meanwhile Former Premier T. D. Pattullo marked his fiftieth wedding anniversary. Premier Johnson went calling on him to present him and his wife with a silver tray from the B.C. Liberal Association. Mr. Pattullo, who refused to coalesce with the Conservatives eight years ago, gloated in his pure, unadulterated, uncompromising Liberalism. "Liberalism never dies," he said, and then, with a twinkle in his eye, "You know, I think that in the not very distant future we'll see the Liberal party in charge of the government in this province once more." He said he didn't want to embarrass Mr. Johnson by such talk but that's what he believes.

Mr. Pattullo, of course, can talk like that without rocking any boats. Coalition cabinet ministers probably wish they were as free.

Radio For Taxi Cars

Radio dispatching of taxicars has made its appearance in Prince Rupert for the first time, having been introduced by Cliff Dahl, Louis Janze and Lou Knutson of the 70 Line and announced elsewhere in this paper today. The installation was completed today and was working smoothly.

The main advantage of radio dispatching is, of course, the increased efficiency that may be obtained in service from the central office, there is constant contact with the drivers as the cars travel about the city with their fares. The drivers are also in touch with the stand by the two-way sets.

It is the latest modern development in connection with taxi dispatching. (1t) been taken up by the council previously. A majority favored to keep teachers from public office in this city.

Another citizen wondered why Prince Rupert had not a city dock. Alderman Black and Robert McKay, mayoralty candidate, explained the city did own a small section of the dock at the end of McBride Street.

At the commencement of the rally, Eric Moore, who was Future Citizens' Day Mayor Tuesday, gave a brief report on activities of high school students who "ran" the town.

Harold Hampton, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce which sponsored the rally, was chairman, while Eric Spears introduced the speakers to the audience.
