Appropriately proposing the Sundays-Continuous service toast to the bride was Crawford Moore. The groom responded. Centering the bride's table was a beautiful four-tier wedding cake, one layer of which had been saved from the twentyfifth anniversary cake of the groom's parents. Mrs. Crawford Moore presided at the pouring table and serviteurs were Mrs. Len Griffiths and Mrs. Allan McBroom. In another room were laid out numerous beautiful wedding gifts which were admired by the

Later in the evening the couple sailed on the Prince Rupert for a brief trip to Ketchikan after which they will take up residence on Piggott Avenue in Rushbrook Heights. The groom is identified with the electrical staff of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co.

If Dollar Were Devalued, Declares Prime Minister St. Laurent

QUEBEC (P) - Speaking here,

Prime Minister L. St. Laurent said that Progressive-Conservative proposals to devalue the Canadian dollar would bring 'chaos" to Canada within a year. The Prime Minister has moved to the federal election sidelines to rest his throat. His last speech was read for him because of a "minor attack of laryngitis." He expects to be speaking again by tonight.
