MOM WAS THE STAR-Margaret O'Brien, 12 - year - old movie star, was reduced to playing a supporting role and her mother, Mrs. Gladys O'-Brien, was the star of the occasion when Mrs. O'Brien, wed orchestra leader Don Sylvio at Palm Beach, Fla. Mrs. O'Brien said that Margaret "turned on the tears" when she learned that she would have to share her mom with someone else. She also sobbed almost constantly during the ceremony and afterwards refused to kiss her stepfather for the benefit of photographers.

deep water while wading.

W. Yurgensen, Salvation Army, scene of the run-off. responded to cries for help when her friend, Virginia Clark of Mill Bay, floundered in the deep water and disappeared.

Shirley was swimming some distance away when she heard cries of people on the shore and saw Virginia disappear. She swam to the spot and found her friend under water. She got beneath the girl and pushed up- Nature's ward, then pulled her to shore. In her attempts to cry for Finest help, Virginia had swallowed a which made timely rescue. "Shirley is a very good swimmer and she didn't think she was doing anything exceptional when she helped Virginia," Mrs. Yurgensen said. "However, she was shaking more than Virginia was after it was over."

Virginia, whose parents live at Mill Bay on the Naas River, is staying at the Salvation Army hostel for native girls while in Saturday afternoon from Gren- the city.
