YOU WOMEN WHO SUFFER HOT FLASHES then FEEL CHILLY-

Here's Good News!

you between the ages of 38 and 45 and going through that trying "middle-age" period... suffer from hot flashes, feel irritable, nervous, irritable, weak? Can you try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms? It's famous for this!

Many wise "middle-age" women use Pinkham's Compound regularly to help build up resistance against this distress.

Pinkham's Compound contains no habit-forming drugs.

ANNUNCIATION WEDDING JOINS CITY COUPLE

The chapel of Annunciation Church was the scene Friday evening of a double ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Mary Sylvester, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Sylvester, 812 Second Avenue, and William Kuzik, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Kuzik of Goldenvale, Saskatchewan. The rite was performed by Rev. Father J. Carroll.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautifully gowned in white taffeta fashioned with mandarin collar and peplum, forming a slight train. Her floor-length veil of illusion net was held in place by a skull cap. Her only ornament was a double strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bride's only attendant was her sister, Miss Lillian Sylvester, who was gowned in pink taffeta with low neckline and cape sleeves. Her bouquet was of pink and yellow carnations.

Groomsman was Richard Sylvester, brother of the bride.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Oddfellows' Hall. The guests were received by the bride's mother, gowned in royal blue with matching hat, and by Mrs. Jean MacArthur, wearing a gown of grey crepe.

An enjoyable evening of dancing followed, with music by Andy McNaughton at the piano and Mike Colussi on the piano-accordion.

Toast to the bride was proposed by Rev. Father Carroll with response by the groom. Telegrams of congratulations were read by the bridegroom at midnight and a buffet luncheon was served. Many lovely wedding presents were opened by the bride and groom in the presence of the guests.

Following the luncheon, the
