SHIPS and— WATERFRONT

A picture of the original s.s. Prince George, battered, fire-blasted, torn and shattered, as she appeared at Seattle, soon after being towed there from Ketchikan has been appearing in the southern press. The hulk had been lying near Ketchikan ever since the fire that destroyed her four years ago. The wreckage has been bought and will be made use of.

Almost four thousand tourist passengers were handled by Canadian National vessels during the season that concluded last month. The new flagship, Prince George, carried 2,600 to Alaska. This number, augmented by tourists making the shorter voyage to Ketchikan on the s.s. Prince Rupert brings the total of Alaska fares to almost 4,000.

Ketchikan Elects Indian to Council

KETCHIKAN—For the first time in Ketchikan's history an Indian has been elected to the city council. This was in the recent poll when Charles Nelson was elected.

C.W.L. IN SESSION—Business sessions of the 29th annual national convention of the Catholic Women's League at Windsor are being brought to order by a new gavel blessed by His Eminence James Charles Cardinal McGuigan and presented to Mrs. T. E. Durocher of Windsor, the national president. Cardinal McGuigan attended the opening ceremonies and addressed the delegates. (C. P. Photo)

LINDA IS TODAY'S POPULAR NAME

OTTAWA — At a baptismal service in Stewart United Church here, Dr. F. S. Milliken baptized six girls—everyone of them named Linda. There seems to be a craze for the name, in the capital city. By the time the fifth Linda appeared, the congregation had begun to laugh heartily, and the clergyman was visibly shaken.
