comes Bride of Rev.
Percival Mallett

A double ring ceremony in West Point Grey United Church Vancouver, united Catherine Edith, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Jones of Portage la Prairie and Rev. Percival Mallett of Terrace, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. Mallett, Burnaby. Rev. Arthur Barner officiated. The bride's gown of white marquisette, en train, was worn with a fingertip veil held with orange blossoms. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of rosebuds and stocks.

Miss Ethel Fairbanks, bridesmaid, wore blue lace net and carried carnations and sweet-peas. The groom was attended by his brother, Alan Mallett, and the ushers were Rayburn McColl and John Colclough. Miss Dorothy Mallett, sister of the groom, was soloist. Mrs. Fanny Humphrey was the organist.

After a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daley, Rev. and Mrs. Mallett left for Vancouver Island. They will reside in Terrace where Mr. Mallett will become pastor of the United Church.

ON THE WATER WAGON
SYDNEY, Australia, — A city council water-wagon driver here for 23 years, was recently charged with driving his car while under the influence of liquor. The magistrate who didn't convict him because of good character, remarked: "In future, when you're driving your car, remember you're on the water wagon."

Sport Shots

Storm warnings are flying over prairie hockey rinks. Managers and coaches are huddled in small, frightened groups and dyed-in-the-wool fans are talking in hushed whispers—all because a spokesman for one of the clubs says he isn't out to win the Allan Cup. Easterners, accustomed to the antics of such masters of psychology as Lachrymose Lew Hayman and other manipulators of the crying-towel, will understand the general consternation when they hear the remarks attributed to Calgary's Charlie Yule.

Mr. Yule, a genial gentleman who guides the fortunes of the Victoria Park arena, was full of good-humored pessimism when he talked to Don (Edmonton Journal) Fleming last week. "I don't think that any of the directors feel that we are going after the Allan Cup seriously," he told the straight-faced Mr. Fleming. "Mind you," he qualified, "we're going to have a good team." Edmonton's oldest inhabitant vaguely recalls a year when Calgary Stampede didn't have a good team. "But we don't want to pack our club to such an extent that we're going to crowd out such centres as Saskatoon and Regina." (The chill wind blowing over Saskatoon and Regina seems to be coming from due west.)

Mr. Yule explained that in many ways the Saskatchewan clubs were "not so comfortably situated" as the Stampede. He deplored the possibility of the Western Canada Hockey League breaking up as it had in the past. But he had to admit that some changes would be necessary in the lineup of the 1947 Stampede—a lamentably poor club that had allowed itself to be beaten by a whisker in the league finals by the Allan Cup-winning Edmonton Flyers. Regrettably he mentioned the name of Mike Yashuk,

JACK ROSEDALE IS CITY LEAGUE STELLAR HURLER 1948 LINDSAY'S RECORD FOR WINS AND LOSSES IS BEST IN 1948

The final pitching records of the local Baseball League show John Rosedale of Moose leading in pitching effectiveness with an earned run average of 2.25 runs per 9 innings pitched. Sharpe and Lindsay of Savoy with 2.37 and 2.49 respectively were close behind.

Jack Lindsay with a record of 6-1 had the best percentage .857. The loss was his first in several years of local competition. He tied for most wins with Dick Letourneau of Merchants who also won 6. George Eluik of Merchants lead in most of the pitching departments. He appeared in most games 11, pitched most innings 74, faced the most batters 266, hit most batters 9, allowed most bases on balls 51, struck out 79 batters, allowed most runs 46. McKinnon of Moose was hit the hardest, allowing 68 base hits.

Shutouts were hurled by

Lindsay and Bill for Savoy; Letourneau and Eluik for Merchants. Letourneau hurled a one hit 1-0 shutout against Moose. He had a no-hitter until the 9th when Moore reached him for a single. Two days later Eluik followed with a two-hit 6-0 victory over Savoy.

Following are the pitching records of the teams and players compiled by Oliver Santur-bane.

LABOR DAY AT TERRACE

TERRACE — Final arrangements were made at a meeting of the Civic Centre Association on Monday night for the Labor Day celebration.

If the weather continues to be wet and blustery, as it has been for the past two weeks, all the sports events can be held indoors in the Civic Centre hall. Apart from the barbecue, a canteen will be open all day long and until the close of the dance where the homestead ticket will be drawn for.

A good program of loggers' sports has been worked out and interest in these events has been shown by woodsmen far from Terrace. A large crowd is expected and being catered for. A special train will be leaving Prince Rupert early on Monday morning. For those who mainstay of last year's Winnipeg Flyers, who will wear Calgary livery this winter. He preferred not to mention other names—the astute Mr. Fleming detected a reluctance to let professional clubs get to his prospects first. It seems Calgary's in for a tough season.

'It was this way, officer'

"For months my car acted as though it had a 10-ton trailer behind. It was hard to start, had no more pick-up than a water-logged scow and balked at every hill. I took it to Bob Parker's for an over-haul and now there is no holding it—it practically flies."
