BEST BETWEEN

After the 'tween season lull, thoughts are turning to what the Basketball Association and Donald Forward, is going to offer fans when the league opens this Saturday evening. In the senior bout of the evening the Co-op, actually the Senior B champions of British Columbia and Kaien Island, will pick on what Alex Bill has decided to throw into the fray and it seems hardly reasonable that we should sell the students short in this affair.

Remembering that the High School outfit has three very smart boys in the two Scherks and Jim Flaten, boys who were eagerly sought by other teams in the league, that they have two boys towering around the rafters in Art Olson and "Tiny" Carlson to grab rebounds, matters could look much worse for them. It might be remembered also that these boys are in condition brought about by constant practice and, of course, that little age angle.

On the other hand, looking at the Fishermen and, admitting that they have a few stars who have been stars for many years, they also have to play the full forty minutes of regulation time to claim victory. No team will be able to coast with High School this year. They will have to stay with the youngsters all the way as each basket counts two points and two at a time soon mount up.

HEADPINNERS LEAD MIXED 5-PIN LEAGUE

Headpinners maintained their wide margin of leadership in the mixed five-pin league this week and marked up a notable record of individual prowess as well although they failed to take a clean sweep over their doughty opponents, the Kingpinners.

Bert Withers led Headpinners and the rest of the league in individual scoring both in the single-game and triple aggregates. His top single game was a 294 which was one of the ingredients of his top-flight 720 total for three games.

Headpinners also rolled up the highest team score of 3,599 and were followed by Kingpinners with 3,370. High School 3, Pinbusters 0, Silver Streaks 3, Brownwoods 0, Pushovers 3, Hotshots 0, Overwaiters 3, Boks 0, Wingers 3, Maple Leafs 0, Headpinners 2, Kingpinners 1, Pioneers 2, Cloverleafs 1, Doggers 2, Maceys 1, Malkins 2, B.C. Messenger 1.
