

Terrace Reports Business Deal

TERRACE—Gerald Duffus, accompanied by his wife and children, arrived during the week from Penticton, to take over the dry goods business of J. H. Smith Ltd., which he purchased earlier in July. On Friday, George McAdams announced that Mr. Duffus had also purchased the Skeena Mercantile and will be taking over in September continuing business in the old name but discontinuing the grocery department. Mr. and Mrs. McAdams came here in 1944 when they bought the store from Roy Fox and considerably enlarged it. They plan to make their home here in the apartment they have behind the Royal Bank. Mr. and Mrs. Duffus will occupy the apartment occupied by the McAdams above the Skeena Mercantile.

Railway Hotels To Carry On

MONTREAL.—The Canadian National Railways said here today that its hotels in the event of strike action, will carry on to the extent that facilities and non-striking personnel will permit and will endeavour in particular to take care of the needs of guests in residence at the hotels.

TERRACE TOPICS

Mrs. S. Dye of Prince Rupert was in Terrace at the week-end to attend the wedding of her granddaughter, Bernice Matthews, to Robert Hatch. Crippled and confined to a wheel chair, Mrs. Dye was brought here by car and she had the pleasure of seeing her three small great-granddaughters be their aunt's flower-girls. Also coming from the coast for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. George Thain, Mr. and Mrs. Len Brewerton and family, Mr. F. Mitzberg, Mrs. W. Timms, Mrs. Nick Hogan and baby and Mr. George Thayer from Vancouver.

Mrs. R. D. Heppell, formerly of Masset, Queen Charlotte Islands, has arrived in Terrace to make her home here and to open a children's wear store next to the Home Grill on Lakelse Avenue. Her young son is with her and her husband will be coming here towards the end of the year when the logging season has closed down on the Islands for the Christmas season.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Davidson have closed their coffee bar which they operated at the Terrace Hotel and will be starting up in business here east of the Civic Centre where they will operate a motel and dining room combined.

School Inspector Ferguson was in town at the beginning of the week on routine business in connection with the opening of the schools.

Mrs. W. Ross Thomson returned on Thursday's train from Kelowna where she has spent the past few weeks with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomson, to whom a second son was recently born.

C. W. Alger spent last weekend in Hazelton in the course of his school secretarial duties.

Mrs. R. Christy and her granddaughter, Ilona Brooks, left on Saturday morning train for their home in Vancouver after spending the summer vacations here with Mrs. C. L. M. Giggey, daughter of Mrs. Christy and aunt of Ilona.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Webb and daughter Barbara, parents and sister of Willard Webb, arrived on Thursday's train from Chilliwack to spend a few days in Terrace. They are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne, Mr. Osborne and Mrs. Webb being brother and sister.

The volunteer fire brigade answered a call at 10:40 on Sunday morning to the home of Felix Tetrault where hay in a barn had been ignited by a youngster with matches. No damage was done to the barn but what hay was not burned was badly smoked and rendered useless. There were four tons of hay in the barn.

W. Baker of Prince Rupert arrived on Saturday by car and returned on Sunday with his wife and two small daughters who had spent the week with the Bakers here.

Mrs. J. Steffanson drove to Prince Rupert on Friday morning accompanied by Mrs. G. Lambly and the two beauty contestants, Norma Perry and Vera Frank who were the Terrace entrants in the beauty contest at the Civic Centre there.

Teachers For Terrace Named

TERRACE—C. W. Alger, School secretary, announced appointment of teachers to the Terrace Elementary and High Schools.

E. S. Laird is returning as principal of the high school, and Alan G. Scott of New Westminster has been appointed to the high school staff.

Miss Annie Lips will be principal of the new elementary school, east of town. H. Noakes, Mrs. Labelle, and Mrs. McIntosh, who taught here last year, will again be on the staff along with four newcomers—Miss Semograd of Saskatchewan, Miss Nyra Doll of Penticton, Miss M. Switzer, and David Hamilton of Vancouver. Mrs. Gladys Clifford will be teaching until February, substituting for Miss Blanche Matte who was teaching her last year and who is taking a special course at Normal School.

TOWN REBUILDS — The little lumber town of Cabano, Que., slowly rises from ashes. The community was two-thirds destroyed last spring in one of two disastrous fires that swept two Quebec centres. The other ravaged city was Rimouski which is also undergoing a rebuilding project. This photo shows some of the 95 new homes being erected at Cabano. (CP Photo)

Lorraine Youngman is Queen of 1950 Carnival

Will Represent District in Miss P.N.E. Contest in Vancouver

Pretty Miss Lorraine Youngman was judged Civic Centre Carnival Queen at Saturday night's Carnival opening. She will be crowned tonight following the coronation parade. Maids of honor at the coronation ceremonies will be Miss Joyce Tattersall, who won second place in the contest, and Miss Norma Perry of Terrace, third place winner. At the crowning tonight, Miss Youngman will receive the sceptre of office from her sister, Miss Nina Youngman, who was second place winner last year and who will act on behalf of Miss Lois Thompson, the retiring queen.

Judges in Saturday night's contest were Mrs. William Noble, Harry Black, Mrs. Elsa Fudger, Buddy Taft and Almer Van Meer. The contest was convened by Mrs. Vernon Ciccone and there were five entrants. Miss Benita Winkle and Miss Vera Frank were other contenders. Miss Youngman won the title by a clear-cut majority of points but the other four contestants' scores were grouped very closely.

Miss Youngman was nineteen years of age yesterday, has blue eyes, is a brunette, five feet six inches in height and weighs 125 pounds. She is interested in swimming and basketball, has completed her Grade 12 schooling and lists piano and singing as two of her special talents. Tomorrow she will fly to Vancouver, where she will represent this northern district in the "Miss P.N.E." contest at the Pacific National Exhibition.

Contestants paraded singly first in gingham dresses and then in shorts and T-shirts. These costumes were required by the Pacific National Exhibition Board. For the grand finale, they all mounted the platform together in their shorts and T-shirts. Friends and admirers applauded enthusiastically.

BACHELOR TAX

Britain taxed bachelors in 1695 to pay for the war with France.
