Again this year, the Kinsmen will be offering for sale the handy Party Pack containing, in separate containers, almonds cashews and peanuts.

Harold Newman, chairman of the committee in charge of the campaign, said today plans are rapidly being finalized for the drive. This year the city has been divided into sections with teams of Kinsmen being assigned to cover each section.

Starting December 7, these teams will try to contact each house in their section. Houses not called upon on opening day will be visited during the rest of the week.

Money raised by the drive will be used for the numerous projects supported by the Kinsmen Club.

Notable among these is the annual Kinsmen Christmas Party held at Miller Bay Hospital. This year the party for the kiddies in the hospital will be held on Sunday, December 20.

Members of the Kinsmen Club with "Santa Claus" will visit the hospital taking gifts and treats to the shut-in children. After the distribution of gifts, club members will visit the children.

The Kinsmen Kiddies' Christmas Party for all of the children in town has been discontinued. Money usually used for this party will be set aside for a more worthy project to assist children.

FREIGHTER EXPECTED

The Greek freighter Andreas sailed earlier this week after taking on 9,400 tons of wheat at the Prince Rupert grain elevator. Expected tomorrow from the United States to take on grain is the Peruvian vessel Mapo.

MADE WITH THE NEW Avco-set rayon fabric, this smart tweed classic now can be popped into the family washing machine and be ready for wear again in a matter of hours. It was designed by Dorothy Hubbs.

Film Version Of Christ's Life

"Upon This Rock," a film version of the famous Hollywood Pilgrimage play on the life of Christ, will be shown tonight at the Annunciation school in Prince Rupert.

It is also scheduled to be shown here Sunday and Monday nights. The feature length picture tells the story of the life of Christ as seen through the eyes of St. Peter, Prince of the Apostles, and is being shown in Canada through the Scarboro Foreign Mission Society.

Professional actors, the same who appeared in the stage play, are featured in the film version, including Nelson Leigh, as Jesus of Nazareth, Leonard Penn as Judas Iscariot and Stephen Chase, Simon called Peter.

Evatt's Daughter Married Today

SYDNEY, Australia (AP)—Rosaline Evatt, 21-year-old adopted daughter of the former United Nations General Assembly president, Herbert V. Evatt, was married today in Canberra. It was the capital's biggest wedding in years.

The bridegroom, 24-year-old Canberra radio announcer Peter Carrodus, is a son of J. A. Carrodus, ex-chief of Australia's interior department.

The 250 guests included leading politicians and diplomats.

LOBA Planning Christmas Tree For Youngsters

Plans for a Christmas Tree party for youngsters were formulated when members of the Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association met in the Oddfellows' Hall here.

Mrs. John Flewin was named convener for the party, to be held December 21.

The group also laid plans for the annual installation of officers to take place at the next meeting, December 12, after which members will enjoy their annual Christmas party and exchange of gifts.

Mrs. J. W. Moorehouse spoke to the group on her recent trip to England and Scotland.

Outstanding Melodies In Totem Show

All the outstanding melodies of Gilbert and Sullivan operas are brought to the screen in Lauder and Gilliat's great film success, "The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan," which opens Monday at the Totem Theatre for a three-day run.

Starring Robert Morley as Gilbert and Maurice Evans as Sullivan, and co-starring Eileen Herlie, the film has songs from some of their most popular operettas, including "The Mikado," "The Gondoliers," "The Pirates of Penzance" and "The Yeomen of the Guard."

It describes the amazing successes of the world-famous showmen of the Victorian era, Sir William Gilbert and Sir Arthur Sullivan, and is a dazzling, melodious picture.

"The Story of Gilbert and Sullivan" is in Technicolor. It was produced by Frank Lauder and Sidney Gilliat and directed by Sidney Gilliat.
