Terrace Restaurant Man Selling Out

TERRACE—Jimmy Wong has his cafe up for sale but he assures us that he is not leaving Terrace. Jimmy formerly had a butcher business where the Terrace Shoe Store is now on Lakelse Avenue. Having been in Terrace since 1943, Jimmy feels there are other business opportunities here.

News of the District

Immigrants For Telkwa

TELKWA—Four families arrived here Saturday from the east and will reside at the mine. There are at least five or six children among the group.

The husbands of these families have been here for the past three or four months and have found employment with the coal mine.

Paul Jorcosh said food was scarce in Germany and he was going to provide all the necessary good things for his family that this country has to offer. He purchased a large order of groceries from one of the local stores.

Walter Dreschner was also joined by his wife and family. A plea and surprise awaited these new settlers on arrival here when Mrs. Rolly Cammock welcomed them into her home for hot coffee before they journeyed on to their new homes.

Masset Was Never Busier

The town of Masset has not often been busier than it is right now. New buildings have already gone up and more are on the way. Masset is an old community, and the present activity is part of the general industrial movement seen throughout the north.

TERRACE TOPICS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strosdine, who came to Terrace from Manitoba last fall, have opened a grocery and confectionery store recently on Agar Avenue in the Keith estate subdivision.

Harold Lindsay of White-mouth, Manitoba, will arrive in Terrace next week for a visit at the home of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. J. McLeod.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. MacKay are on their way home from California, according to word received by Mrs. Chris Haugland.

Native Mission Work Described

At Sunday night's monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society, Bishop Anthony Jordan showed slides of the native missions in the vicariate of Prince Rupert. He also gave a short talk on the steps being taken to improve the lives of the natives in this area by providing churches, schools and continually improving on them.

President G. R. Brett appointed Phil Lyons to head a committee in charge of final arrangements for the St. Patrick's Day banquet.

A work party was organized under Mr. J. L. Blain to complete renovations to the school gym.

SHIPS AND WATERFRONT

Union steamer Camosun, Capt. John Boden, was late in arriving at 11:30 last night from Vancouver via Kemano and other coast points. After discharging local cargo, the vessel sailed this morning for Alice Arm and Stewart whence she is due back here tomorrow to sail south at 12 noon. Earlier last evening, Union steamer Chilcotin, Capt. William McCombe, was in port, arriving at 6 p.m. from South Queen Charlotte Island points and sailing at 8 p.m. on her return south.

CORNWALL, Ont. (P)—A herd of 11 deer was seen by residents roaming through the fields near here recently. The deer stopped at a spring to take a drink before heading back to the safety of the game preserve.

THE ROUND-UP

from the reserved benches. Arriving in Prince Rupert a few days ago, the Anxox visitor picked up a copy of The Daily News and saw in this column the story of the "On to Pentiction Fund," and that Calderoni was accepting donations at the Centre.

When Fowler wrote out his donation cheque, he exchanged sports reminiscences with Calderoni and guessed that had Anxox been able to enter provincial senior playoffs in those days, it could easily have resulted in a few championships then for Northern B.C.

The well-wisher is strong in his support of the Challengers. Others who have signified their support with donations are:

R. H. Davidson, Pat Deane, W. Robinson, Dennis Water, W. MacAfee, Mrs. A. S. Nickerson, Miss Nickerson, Bill Gordon, Pat Forman, Dick Nickerson, Don Forward, Bill Martin, Harold Webber, Doug Sankey, B. MacFarlane, Leonard Ring, Cliff Dahl, Mrs. A. Dickens, Dr. Hector MacDonald, Mrs. Mary Brown, Nick Haugen, Emi Blain, Helge Holkestad, Bob Rudderham, Tony Crawley, Mrs. L. W. Kergin, Miss D. MacDonald.

That's a very nice looking list, it's true, but the campaign committee thinks it could look a lot better.

Donations so far total about $200, a large percentage of which has been given by immediate sport fans and players.

To further the fund, two major events will be staged before the Challengers leave on next Thursday's plane.

Tuesday, a novel feature exhibition divides Prince Rupert's top caegrs into two equal strength teams with a few old-timers added to each line-up. More particulars follow.

The second affair is the "farewell dance" for the Challengers to be held Wednesday night at the Elks Home. All well-wishers and fans are being invited.
