Third Girl Guide Company Reviews Year's Activities

The Third Prince Rupert Girl Guide Company has commenced its winter session with a review of the busy session before Christmas. The following proficiency badges were awarded: Needlewoman's to Anne Eyoifson and Judy Lloyd; Homemakers to Jeanne Golds and Judy Lloyd; Toy-makers and Leatherworkers to Jeanne Golds, and during the Christmas holidays, Jeanne Golds passed her Naturalist Badge. Lectures were given by Mrs. V. They paraded on Remembrance Day to the Cenotaph, and on Dec. 7 the Queen's Colors, which previously been presented to Heather Stevens gained her Second Class Badge and now wears her patrol leader's stripes.

First Group of Bikes To Get Safety Strips

Students at two city schools—Conrad and Booth—are being advised to take their bicycles to their school this Friday night and leave them overnight ready for the application of "scotch-lite" reflectors on Saturday.

While it is not known how many can be done on Saturday, the Parent-Teachers Association, with members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, expect to complete a large number.

If the work is not completed this Saturday, remaining bikes will probably be completed on Jan. 24 when the reflectors will be applied to children's bikes at Borden and King Edward.

BOOTH SATURDAY

The Booth Memorial High School P-TA met Monday night and decided to begin the application of the safety tape this Saturday. It was reported at the meeting also that the students are responding well to the serving of hot soup during the lunch period.

Mrs. J. F. Denning of the Parent-Teacher Council, said the children should bring their bikes to the schools the night prior to application of the scotch-lite because the temperature of the bicycles must be 50 degrees in order to apply the tape.

T. G. Bateman, principal at Conrad Street school, will be interviewed next Tuesday over the Jaycee radio program concerning the campaign to get all bikes of school children serviced with the reflectors for safety purposes.

A total of 168 bikes at King Edward school will be serviced in lots of 40, the P-TA decided last night, beginning Jan. 24.

Joe Goscoe, school safety convener, will be in charge of operations, assisted by children's parents. Pupils are asked to leave their bikes at the school the day before the operation begins.

City Rotarians To Present One-Man Show

Tickets for the Frank Crawshaw show here January 19 and 20 can be obtained from any member of the Rotary Club.

Described as the actor with 100 disguises, he will appear on the Monday in a series of fascinating comedy skits, original character studies, Shakespearean excerpts and bits from the poems of Kipling and Robert Service.

On the Tuesday night, Mr. Crawshaw will give a one-man depiction of a "Christmas Carol," portraying the characters of Scrooge, Tiny Tim, Bob Cratchit and others.

Crawshaw first began to "annoy the public" at the age of 12 with his "recitations" at church and chapel concerts in his native Yorkshire. He gave his first "one-man Theatre" performance at the age of 15. He joined the army at the age of 16 and saw front line service with the infantry in France where he was wounded and gassed.

After the war and following a period on the concert platform, he joined a "hit-up" company, touring small towns of Ireland. Then followed seven years as a repertory leading man in various parts of Britain.

Hockey talk has taken the place of assessments week and if all that's spoken is true some real is bound to be shown Sunday when the Elks with the Gyros on the Rotary rink. Game time has been announced.

Meanwhile training is progressing. A spokesman for the Gyros said most of that club's team greenhorns are being drilled by former Winnipeg and Selkirk player Jim Stewart, who is leaving for Smithers tonight to curl in a bonspiel but will be back in time for Sunday's game.

Also at the Gyro camp were Abs Phillipson, said to be a goalie of note. In a contest with a pick-up team, which included such players as Swede Morse and Tommy Newton, Harold Whalen, who starred many years ago around the net for the South Saanich Tigers, got all three goals.

The official scorer failed to keep tab of goal-getters on the other team after the count reached 20 so onlookers were unable to report the final score.

Special coverage of the Coronation is bound to be received by Mrs. Bremner, whose son-in-law Herb Jeffrey has been selected as one of the men to play with the Kneller Hall Trumpeters at Westminster Abbey at the June 2 ceremony.

Herb, who married Nancy Bremner, was well-known here during the war years for his saying in the navy band. He transferred recently from navy to the artillery to take a three-year course at the Royal Military School of Music, Kneller Hall, Twickenham. In a letter to her mother, Nancy told of Herb's election.
