Girls From Prince Rupert, Central B.C. End Two Week Camp at Braun's Island

Girls from all over Central British Columbia and Alaska have just completed a 12-day camp at Few Acres, Braun's Island. This was the eighth annual session and more than 50 girls from Kamano, Ketchikan, Prince Rupert, Terrace and Hazelton attended the camp.

Director of the camp was Miss Irene Berryman of Ketchikan, assisted in the teaching department by Lunelle Lewis of Texas. Junior and intermediate groups were set up for the girls who ranged in age from nine to 15 years.

Teaching the juniors were Mrs. Ed Martin, Mrs. Stan Bradshaw and Arthur Jones. Miss Gertrude Mitchell, owner of the five-acre camp was chief cook.

Helping her in the kitchen were Mrs. Henry Vanderheide and the teachers when not on duty. Other help was supplied by Eleanor Buller, Eleanor Peters and Mrs. George Peters.

The girls' day began with clean-up and morning devotions. After breakfast cabins were inspected, followed by Bible lessons. At other times during the day mission studies and handwork projects kept the girls busy. The weather favored camp life and the girls were able to enjoy swimming.

Chapel service brought the day to a close and the final session of the camp, the coronation service, provided a highlight of the camping session.

Marion Smith was judged the best-all-round camper and other prizes went to Verena and Renate King, Ethel Egg, Carol Foster, Shirley Klein, Geraldine Wilkins and Judy Lovely.

The boys went to camp for their 12-day session August 12 under the leadership of Pastor Stan Bradshaw of Kamano. He is being assisted by Arthur Jones and David Owens. Mrs. Vanderheide is camp cook, assisted by Geraldine Wilkins, Shirley Klein, Mrs. George Peters and Miss Mitchell.

A family camp will get under way August 23 where parents can spend a holiday with their children before school re-opens.

Neo was declared emperor of Rome two months before his 17th birthday.

Car Recovered From River

All day job Sunday saw recovery of 1952 sedan owned by David Roblin, Prince Rupert, from the bottom of the Skeena River. Car was sunk in 65 feet of water after being in collision with car driven by Doug Stevenson August 2.

Dragging was at mile 67 between Prince Rupert and Terrace was carried out by Dan Lippett and Tex Lee who first discovered hood of car about 50 feet down river from where the car entered water. Battered sedan, with the roof and both ends caved in by pounding against rocks on bottom of river, was found another 50 feet further down river. The two men worked with grappling equipment from dawn until dark.

THE SHEARDOWN BROTHERS WISH TO ANNOUNCE

THE SALE OF NORTHLAND DAIRY LIMITED

TO THE BULKLEY VALLEY MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

Allen, Harry and Bill Sheardown wish to thank all of their customers for the fine support that they have received in the past 5 1/2 years in operating Northland Dairy. They hope you will give the new owners even more support in the future than Northland Dairy has received in the past.

The Sheardowns also wish to thank the Bulkley Valley Milk Producers Association for their fine co-operation in the past 5 1/2 years while processing and shipping their milk to Northland Dairy.

As of August 17, Mr. John Greene of Meadowbrooke Farms, Telkwa, assumes the responsibility and management of the dairy for the new owners, The Bulkley Valley Milk Producers Association. He has been in the dairy business on both the producing and selling levels almost all of his life.

Mr. Greene extends to you an open invitation to visit any of the farms of the Bulkley Valley Milk Producers Association and see for yourself the ideal conditions under which the milk is produced.
