

Gordon and Anderson Gain 9-5 Win To Lead Off 1954 Senior Ball Loop

With a combination of sharp hitting and suppressive opposition errors in the fifth inning, Gordon and Anderson took the first game of the 1954 Prince Rupert Senior Baseball League from Esquires by a 9-5 count at Roosevelt Park yesterday afternoon.

Before G & A unleashed their offensive, Esquires trailed by only two runs and a last-minute rally in the ninth by Benny Windle's boys could not overcome the seven run deficit.

Rusty Ford's crew led all the way, starting off in the scoring column in the first inning when Don Scherk walked, stole second and came in on an error to Esquire's shortstop Joe Giordano, which saw Dave Hill get safely around to second.

Esquires produced nothing in their half of the first as Freddy Christensen whiffed the first three men. G & A's half of the second was no more successful as Ralph Enridge fled out to second baseman Maddy Sedgewick.

Stan Petrow popped up to Barry Williamson at third and Ian Dunbar roled one into the mitt of Ken Hill in left field.

In the Esquire's second, Don Hawryluk got a pass but was thrown out going into second. Ken Hill fanned and Paul Poirrier fouled out to catcher Don Scherk.

SUNDERBERG TRIPLES
Christensen in the third got on when Giordano bobbled his hit and came in to score on Bill Sunderberg's three bagger. Hartwig popped up to Esquire pitcher Bill Donaldson who nipped Sunderberg off base. Don Scherk fled out to first sacker Poirrier.

Young Rev McKay, who was a bulwark defensively and offensively for Esquires in his first senior game, started off the second half of the third with a bunt and made it down to second on Don Scherk's overthrow. The next two batters whiffed, Williamson walked, Giordano got to first on Dave Hill's error. The threat ended when Bill Donaldson fled out to Syd Scherk on first.

Syd Scherk sacrificed in the fourth to advance Hill to second after the G & A second baseman had fanned a life when Williamson dropped his high pop-up. A second error by Williamson allowed Hill to reach third where he was stranded as Ralph Enridge struck out and Stan Petrow grounded out third to first.

Esquires picked up their first run in the fourth when Hill hit by a pitched ball, scored on Poirrier's double, after Hawryluk had struck out. McKay hit sharply through first, but was caught off base by Syd Scherk when Sedgewick fled out to Dave Hill.

WILD THROW
G & A's big fifth saw Dunbar lead off with a safety through centre, steal second and come home when Christensen hit to left centre. Christensen crossed the plate when Donaldson threw wildly to home. Hartwig walked.

Don Scherk grounded to the pitcher who threw to third. Williamson bobbled the catch and Hartwig advanced to second. Hill hit to second baseman Sedgewick who muffed it, and Hartwig scored and Scherk advanced to third on the play but was thrown out by Donaldson at home. Hill came home on Enridge's two bagger after Syd Scherk fanned. Petrow was thrown out by Williamson, third to first.

In the sixth, Benny Windle sent in right-hander Jackie Sharpe who retired Dunbar, gave up a pass to Christensen and made Sunderberg fly out to Giordano and Hartwig to Douhanuk.

Neither team scored again until the ninth when G & A picked up two runs on a double by Syd Scherk which scored Sunderberg who had walked and Hartwig who had gained a life through an error to Giordano.

Dennis Reid replaced Christensen on the mound for G & A after Christensen had walked Danny Bill, in for Sedgewick, and Sharpe. Williamson walked to load the bases. Giordano grounded out third to first scoring Bill. Douhanuk reached first safely when Hartwig pulled Syd Scherk off the bag. Scherk was hurt on the play and Mouse Morrison went to right field and Dunbar took over first. McGregor who had taken over second base in the sixth received a walk. Ken Hill singled scoring Williamson. The game ended when Poirrier went down swinging.

STRUCK OUT 12
Christensen, who allowed only four hits gained the win, fanning 12 in the process. Donaldson, who also pitched four hit ball, struck out two. Sharp allowed two hits for two runs and Reid one hit for one run.

Rusty Ford's boys got their nine runs on a total of seven hits and eight errors and they left six men on base. Esquires made it five runs on five hits and four errors, leaving 11 men stranded on the base paths.

Victoria, Salem Lead WIL As Stampedeers Welcomed Back

By The Associated Press

With the Calgary Stampedeers once more in the fold, Western International League baseball teams picked up their regular schedule Monday and set their sights on Victoria and Salem, virtually deadlocked in first place entering the second week of the 1954 season.

The Stampedeers, left homeless when the league picked up the owner's franchise opening day, lost their "orphan" status Saturday when league directors accepted a new Calgary offer and restored the club to a full membership.

The directors acted after the Calgary management reported it was agreeing to WIL terms. The club also hired Gordon MacFarlane, hockey player and coach with a professional and semi-pro baseball background, as general manager.

Stampedeers celebrated their return Sunday with a 10-13 win over Lewiston in the opening game of a doubleheader, then were nosed out 6-7 in the nightcap.

Victoria knocked Salem off the top perch by taking a pair of games by identical 6-5 margins Saturday but the Senators closed the gap to a few percentage points with a 4-3 win over Tri-City Sunday.

6-3 Saturday but lost a Sunday twin bill, 3-2 and 5-3. Yakima and Wenatchee divided a doubleheader, Yakima winning the opener 6-1 and Wenatchee the nightcap 8-3. Vancouver stepped out of the league Sunday to defeat Bellingham, Wash., 6-2 in an exhibition game. The Capilano took a pair from Tri-City Saturday 8-3 and 13-4.

The week-end left Spokane and Vancouver half a game back of Salem, Yakima one game back, and Wenatchee, Edmondton and Lewiston a game and a half out.

The schedule for Tuesday places Spokane at Tri-City, Lewiston at Salem, Victoria at Yakima, Vancouver at Wenatchee and Calgary at Edmondton.

SOME PEOPLE collect stamps, some valuable coins, others prefer antiques, many others collect baseball mementos. The latter happens to be the hobby of the gentleman pictured here. Of course, since Andy Pakko happens to be a professional ballplayer he has quite a head start on diamond nuggets. The Milwaukee Braves outfielder, formerly with the Chicago Cubs and Brooklyn Dodgers, is shown with baseball bats and balls that have played an important part in his long major-league career.

Polite Mayhem Demonstrated In City's First Judo Display

Combining the grace of the ballet, the ferocity of the rough and tumble, and the politeness that is traditionally Japanese, the Port Edward Judo Club demonstrated Saturday night at the Civic Centre that age, size and weight have no bearing in a judo contest.

The display was the club's first and was staged with three purposes in mind. Seiji Matsuo told the audience. First, off, he said, the group wished to introduce judo to Prince Rupert. The club also needs funds for a new mat, and wishes to take a judo team to Vancouver next spring.

Leading off the display Harry Noda and Toshi Nishi demonstrated 12 of the 50 tricks comprising judo, which was formulated to do the maximum work with a minimum of effort. Contestants are dressed in traditional garb of trousers and a loose tunic which is kept in place by a wrap-around belt.

Unlike wrestling, emphasis is placed on holds which see the participants grasp the tunic to effect necessary leverage to bring about a fall. Surprise is the big feature of the sport, and opponents keep close watch on each others feet as they move back and forth across the floor. Flowery sounding names given to the tricks, such as Ukigoshi, or "floating loin" cover a fast moving maneuver which sees the unwary participant flying over his opponent's hip. A fall in judo, Mr. Noda explained, must be clear-cut and see the unsuccessful entrant flat on his back. He went on to explain that to be an instructor one must have

Sudbury Leading Cup Series 3-1
PENTICTON, B.C. — The hometown V's currently tilting with Sudbury Wolves for the Allan Cup, are in an ideal position. Noted as "the team which comes from behind," they're about as far back as they can get, losing Saturday night 8-2. One more loss and the cup goes east in Sudbury's travelling bag and the Wolves move into the throne room of Canadian amateur hockey.

Wolves lead the V's 3-1 in the best-of-seven series and could walk away with the playoff in the fifth game here Tuesday.

Tigers Take Half Game Lead Over White Sox With 3-2 Victory and 0-0 Dead

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rival American League clubs are beginning to take the amazing Detroit Tigers seriously. Sunday the Tigers whipped Chicago White Sox 3-2 in the first game of a doubleheader and held them to a 10-inning 0-0 stand-off in the second game.

The Tigers now are in first place—a half-game ahead of Cleveland and two ahead of the defending champion Yankees. They return home with a brilliant 5-1-1 record for their first road tour.

OTHER GAMES
In other American League games Baltimore defeated Cleveland 2-1 in 10 innings, and the Yankees whipped and tied Philadelphia in a double-header. Three home runs gave the Yanks a 7-4 opening game triumph and rookie Bill Skowron's run-scoring single in the eighth gave them a 1-1 tie in the second game halted after nine innings on account of darkness.

Brooklyn opened up a half-game lead in the National League, nipping Philadelphia 2-1 while the second-place Cincinnati Redlegs split a doubleheader with St. Louis. The Redlegs came back to win the second game 6-5 after the Cardinals had captured the opener 10-7. New York Giants wallaped Pittsburgh 5-1 and Chicago Cubs edged Milwaukee 5-3.

It took Detroit 11 innings to defeat the White Sox in the opener.

The Indians missed an opportunity to pass Chicago for the runner-up spot when Bob Turley held them to four hits. Gil Coan's single scored Neil Berry with the run that hung a tough defeat upon Art Houtteman.

Home runs by Andy Carey, Yogi Berra and Enos Slaughter accounted for all but one New York run as the Yankees defeated Bob Trice, A's rookie right hander.

Carl Erskine outpitched Robin Roberts as the Dodgers swept the three-game series from Philadelphia.

Sal Maglie hurled a six-hitter against the Pirates for his fifth triumph against one defeat.

Home runs by Hank Sauer and Ralph Kiner helped Chicago's

Northern Clubs Return Victorious

Portland Beavers and Seattle Rainiers, both boasting series victories over Southern opponents, headed north Monday to prepare for their first head-on collision of the 1954 Pacific Coast League baseball season.

They will play the first of seven games in Seattle Tuesday night.

Portland shellacked Los Angeles 4-2 and 8-4 Sunday to win the series in the Angels' home park 4-3. Seattle divided with Oakland winning 7-5 and losing 10-5 but won the series by the same 4-3 margin.

Seattle won the nightcap in the ninth when Jim Atkins took the mound with the bases loaded and promptly walked Nanny Fernandez to force in Pete Hernandez with the deciding run.

Eddie Basinski's two home runs powered Portland to the second game victory over Los Angeles and homers by Don Egert, Walt Juchnick and Rocky Krasnich decided the opener.

Dick Richards hit his 10th homer of the season for the Angels, and like all the others it came with the bases empty. He also tied a 30-year-old record in the first game by making only one putout at first base.

Hollywood won from San Diego 12-6 and 3-2 to knock the Padres out of first place. Sacramento took the second game in 11 innings 2-1 after losing to San Francisco 4-2.
