

MOUNTIES IN TRAINING

THE RCMP'S OFFICERS, non-commissioned officers and constables who will ride in the Coronation procession next June, are in public relations is considered important. They are taking classes in the subject at Ottawa under Sgt. J. Allen.

Sgt. B. PONFRET, physical training instructor, conducts a squad drill at Ottawa for the contingent. All have good conduct records and a minimum of five years' service with previous qualifications in horsemanship.

RCMP HORSES which will take part in the procession also are in special training. Blank cartridges are fired near the horses to accustom them to sudden loud noises of large crowds. Tin cans and other devices also are used.

GROOMING is considered essential. Here, Constable J. Curries his horse. Members of the contingent range in age from five-foot-nine to six feet and are drawn from all provinces and the Yukon.

Red Leader Says Canada Could Conserve Resources

REAL — Solon Low, leader of the Social party, says Canadians should consider whether Canada can achieve self-sufficiency or continue the program of "more and more trade."

Low, speaking at a service club, Mr. Low said economic self-sufficiency has become more than a slogan in the United States; it is "almost a reality."

Low makes that fact much more important in that so many of the world are in very great need of scores of things which only the United States can supply."

As to Canada, "with our eyes wide open we have tied ourselves to the United States market, although the United Kingdom and Europe were, at one time, Canada's best customers."

"Does our future strength and well-being depend upon more and more trade? Or, in the alternative, should Canada be following the trend that is quite apparent over the whole world—more and more self-sufficiency?"

Dulles Urges Speed-Up In Formation of EDC

Europe Must be United To Guarantee Security

WASHINGTON (AP)—State Secretary John Foster Dulles says "there is a good chance" for formation of a European Defence Community, but he hopes that "concrete evidence" of progress will be forthcoming promptly.

Pearson Sees Urgent Need For Decision

OTTAWA (CP)—External Affairs Minister Pearson said he hopes Britain will move even closer to the European Defence Community and denied that Canada views European defence with "olymplan" detachment.

He said Communist conspiracy is world-wide and that no action by any Western power should be taken without considering its global effects.

Collective security arrangements had become interdependent, he said. No exclusively regional arrangement such as NATO would be sufficient to meet the global threat of communism.

The strength and progress of NATO's 14-nation alliance would have to be linked closer with the move towards European unity.

Mr. Pearson said there had been hopes that the six-nation pooling of military strength known as the European Defence Community would be in existence by now but both France and Germany had shown hesitations and doubts.

EDC is the plan to set up a common army for France, Germany and other European countries.

These delays had "perhaps caused more surprise and disappointments in some quarters than they should have."

But there was a need for decision soon.

He said Britain had recently taken more steps to bring herself closer to EDC without formally joining it and "we hope she will be able to take even further steps to that end" without jeopardizing her ties with the Commonwealth.

Dulles, reporting on his recent trip to European capitals, cautioned that the alternatives to a European Defence Community are considered by President Eisenhower to be weak.

He said the security of Europe itself and in some degree the security of the United States depend upon successful accomplishment of the undertaking.

SIGNED TREATY IN MAY

Italy, France, West Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg signed a treaty to create the EDC last May. Dulles said it was then expected that this treaty and related arrangements for tying it to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization would be ratified and made operative in six months. Actually, he noted, months have passed and ratification is still lacking.

This has been "disconcerting" to the U.S., Dulles said, because U.S. security plans are based upon eventual inclusion of German military strength in the Western European Defence system. That, he said, is what the EDC was designed to accomplish.

AFFECTS U.S. SECURITY

In the last seven years, he said, the U.S. has contributed $30,000,000,000 to Europe and stationed "tens of thousands of our armed forces" there because European security vitally affects U.S. security.

"But our effort will not permanently serve Europe, or ourselves, or humanity, unless it fits into a constructive program for European unity. Nothing that the U.S. can do will ever be enough to make Europe safe if it is divided into rival national camps."

President Eisenhower himself said recently he was impressed with the "feebleness" of alternatives to the European defence community.

B.C. Pays Third Highest Pension in 65-69 Age Group

OTTAWA (CP)—A total of 41,601 Canadians between 65 and 69 were receiving pensions under the Old Age Assistance Act at the end of the last fiscal year, March 31, 1952.

The new act, effective Jan. 1, 1952, provided for pensions to needy persons in the 65-69 age group. The provinces can fix the maximum amount of the pension, but the federal government pays 50 per cent of the cost of pensions of up to $40 a month.

A report tabled in the Commons by Health Minister Martin showed the highest average monthly pension is paid in Quebec—$38.61. No figure was given for Newfoundland where the federal-provincial agreement did not take effect until April 1, 1952.

Average pension in other provinces: Alberta $37.36; British Columbia $38.28; Manitoba $38.45; New Brunswick $36.91; Nova Scotia $34.09; Ontario $37.28; Prince Edward Island $21.72; and Saskatchewan $36.93.

The report did not cover the universal old-age pensions, paid to Canadians 70 and over regardless of need. More than 300,000 Canadians now are receiving the universal pension of $40 a month.

Mr. Martin tabled a separate report dealing with pensions to blind persons. The federal government pays 75 per cent of the cost of $40-a-month pensions to needy blind persons between 21 and 69. Once they reach age 70, the blind persons are covered by the Old Age Pensions Act.

The report said there are 19,076 blind persons of all ages registered with the Canadian National Institute for the Blind. At March 31 last, 8,079 were receiving pensions under the Blind Persons Act. Another 3,200 were receiving the old-age pension.

Average monthly blind pension by provinces:

Alberta $38.89; British Columbia $39.25; Manitoba $39.37; New Brunswick $39.25; Newfoundland $39.26; Nova Scotia $38.39; Ontario $39.20; Prince Edward Island $38.10; Quebec $39.48; and Saskatchewan $39.25.

The Northwest Territories and the Yukon paid the maximum of $40 a month.

RHEUMATIC PAIN?

MINARD'S LINIMENT

TWO MEMBERS OF THE SAULTEAUX INDIAN TRIBE take time out from a trappers' convention in Prince Albert, Sask., to enjoy a cup of coffee. They are Fred Moose (left) of Key Indian Reserve and Johnny Bluebell from the Nut Lake Indian Reserve.

Saulteaux Indians Return To Reservation After Meet

PRINCE ALBERT, Sask. (CP)—Four members of the Saulteaux Indian tribe, one of the few remaining pagan tribes in North America, have returned to their reservations in east-central Saskatchewan following a visit to Prince Albert to attend the annual northern Saskatchewan trappers' convention.

The Saulteaux, or Saultauers, number about 600 and live on four reservations with about 1,900 Christianized members of the tribe.

Despite the fact they worship the sun and "Ksay Manitou" spirit, the Saulteaux fit into a normal Canadian life of trapping and farming. Many of them own their own tractors, trucks and other farm machinery.

The four delegates attending

'Big Man' Is Ex-Convict

MONTREAL —The "Big Man" who disposed of goods stolen by cat burglar Roland Desrochers is an ex-convict well known to Montreal detectives said here.

In Vancouver last Wednesday, Desrochers told police about the "big man" in the east.

"If I tell you who he is, you would laugh at me," Desrochers was quoted as saying. "He's a big man. Everyone knows him."

Montreal detectives said they know who the "fence" is but have been powerless to act because of lack of evidence. They said the man's name is well known in police circles but doubted it is known by the general public.
