Timely RECIPES

Hot breads often make the meal. These "Apple Crumb Muffins" do just that and we'll venture to say they'll be appearing on your menus frequently.

APPLE CRUMB MUFFINS

1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup granulated sugar
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 egg
2/3 cup milk
2 tablespoons melted shortening
2/3 cup unsweetened cooked dried apples.
Sift together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and spice. Blend in crumbs. Beat egg. Add milk, shortening and apples. Add to first mixture, stirring only enough to moisten dry ingredients. Fill greased muffin pans about 2/3 full. Bake in hot oven (425°F.) about 25 minutes. Makes 1 dozen medium-sized muffins.

Famed Ship Total Loss From Fire

YARMOUTH, N.S. (CP)—The schooner, City of New York, last of Canada's large windjammers, was termed a total loss by port officials as she lay fire-blackened and broken Wednesday on a reef off this western Nova Scotia port.

It was an ironic ending for the once-fleet vessel used by Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd during his Antarctic exploration.

But her 34-inch topsides and 40-inch bottom planking—which bucked the ice of two frozen continents—were laid open Tuesday night on the jagged Chebogue Ledge, where she grounded after snapping her towline.

The three-masted schooner, converted to a coastal cargo ship and stripped of her topsails when bought in 1943 by Capt. Louis Kennedy of Conquerall Banks, N.S., was being towed to Lunenburg when the line broke.

Before the crew could attach another line, she ran aground. The seas apparently upset the cabin stove and fire spread quickly.

Six crew members were rescued by an RCMP patrol boat.

The City of New York was built as the Samson in a Norwegian shipyard in 1885 and, after Byrd's history-making voyage to the Antarctic in 1928, converted to a floating museum for the World's Fair in Chicago.

CHOWDER IN THE RAW—Digby scallops—fried, chowder or any way you like them—are top items on Nova Scotia menus. Fishermen at the Bay of Fundy port tackle the job of shelling the day's catch. There are plenty more in the hold when they clean up the array on deck.

Two Women Shoot It Out With Mau Mau

NAIROBI, Kenya (CP)—Two white women grabbed guns and shot it out with a raiding band of Mau Mau natives in their bedroom Friday night.

They killed three of the Africans and wounded a fourth. The Africans broke into their bedroom on a lonely farm in the Mweiga area of Nyeri, hot spot in the anti-white terrorist campaign waged by the Mau Mau secret cult.

The two women were Mrs. Dorothy Raynes-Simson and Mrs. Kitty Heselburger.

Kurt Mueller Named in New Purge Trial

BERLIN (CP)—East Germany's Reds set the stage Sunday for their long-heralded purge trial with an anti-Jewish backdrop. The ruling Socialist United (Communist) party announced adoption of a resolution which amounted to indictment of two former high officials who have been behind bars for more than two years.

They are Kurt Mueller, No. 2 Communist of West Germany until he was kidnapped on a visit to East Berlin in May, 1950, and Paul Merker, a Jew, former state secretary of East Germany's agriculture ministry and member of the Politburo until September, 1950.

Merker is charged with harboring the Zionist viewpoint.

WINTER SPORT—Crisp white snow—and plenty of it—on the slopes of Mount Jamieson, 20 miles northwest of Timmins, Ont., gives members of the Porcupine Ski Club a chance to enjoy their favorite sport. Below-zero temperatures or the festive season failed to dampen the enthusiasm of skiers, who put the trails and tow to good use. (CP Photo)

SLEEPY HOUSE BREAKER NOW RESTING BEHIND BARS

BERLIN, Reuters—Kurt Hofschlag, 23, is spending the next 18 months behind bars because he fell asleep on the job. A householder testified in court that he came home to find his house burgled and Hofschlag asleep on the couch.

"I was just tired," Hofschlag told the court. It was his fifth house breaking job that night.

Bras d'Or Lakes, an arm of the sea which almost cuts Cape Breton Island in halves, have a total area of 350 square miles. 2,740 square miles of forests and small lakes.

BLACKWOOD on Bridge

By EASLEY BLACKWOOD

Mr. Dale's Attack Against Slam Almost Is Fatal

Old Mr. Dale believes in making attacking leads against slams. His lead of the five of clubs in today's hand didn't work out so well. In fact, it was almost fatal to his side's chances of defeating the contract.

Leading into declarer's 10-ace holdings is not the best way to pick up tricks and yet Mrs. Keen did that very thing later in the hand and it effectively killed Mr. Abel's chances.

Mr. Abel won the first trick with the queen of clubs and led a heart to dummy's king, getting the bad news about the distribution in that suit.

He came out with the queen of diamonds and the contract could have been beaten if Mrs. Keen had ducked. But, being human, she went in with her ace. However, she did not wood-only return a club. Mr. Abel could have won a club return with the ace, picked up all of Mr. Dale's trumps, cashed the king and jack of diamonds, and dummy's three high spades would have taken the last three tricks.

After winning the ace of diamonds, Mrs. Keen took time out to think—a highly recommended and often neglected practice. She reasoned that her partner surely had more hearts than dummy. If he didn't, then Mr.
