White Sox Facing Test As Yanks Visit Chicago

By BEN PHLEGAR
 Associated Press Sports Writer

If the Chicago White Sox intend to be pennant contenders the next time the New York Yankees come to visit, they better figure some way to beat the champs in the four-game set starting tonight.

The Yanks won't be back in Chicago until July 27 and by that time it may be too late. In fact, the way Cleveland has been going, it just might be too late for either the Yankees or the White Sox.

This is especially true since the Indians figure to fatten up on the hapless Boston Red Sox while Chicago and New York are tangling with each other.

All three of the contenders won Thursday. Cleveland ran its winning streak to eight games with a 6-4 triumph over Washington. The White Sox outlasted Philadelphia 6-4 and New York breezed over Baltimore 9-2. Boston lost its ninth game in its last 10 starts, 2-1 to Detroit.

GIANTS IN FRONT

In the National League the New York Giants pulled two games in front of the Brooklyn Dodgers by shading Cincinnati 2-1. Brooklyn lost to Milwaukee 6-4. Philadelphia and St. Louis played the longest game of the season—15 innings—before the Phils won 3-2 with Robin Roberts going all the way. Chicago was rained out at Pittsburgh.

Cleveland jumped away to a three-run lead in the first inning against the Senators as Frank Shea walked two men and hit one. Vic Wertz doubled and Wally Westlake singled. The Washington runs came in the seventh when Early Wynn walked the bases loaded and in the ninth on Mickey Vernon's two-run homer.

Gus Zernial, who has been feuding with manager Eddie Joost of the Athletics, came off the bench to deliver a three-run pinch hit homer at Chicago. His blast followed a bases-empty homer by Bill Wilson. But the A's were trailing by six runs by the time they found the range and they couldn't catch up.

Baltimore's defence fell apart as the Orioles lost their third straight to the Yankees. New York wrapped it up with five runs in the sixth inning with the help of Baltimore's errors in fielding and judgment. Three of the runs scored on a short single into centre field by Mickey Mantle.

Jim Wilson of the Braves, a no-hit winner his last time out, ran his string of hitless innings to 10 and scoreless innings to 24 before the Dodgers broke into the scoring column.

Jackie Robinson tied a modern National League record for long hits with two home runs and two doubles. Duke Snider a two-run homer. For Milwaukee, Hank Aaron, Eddie Mathews, and Danny O'Connell hit home runs off Johnny Podres.

Roberts scored the winning run in the marathon at Philadelphia. He opened the 15th by walking, moved to second on a sacrifice, to third on an infield grounder and scored on a single by Del Ennis. The Philadelphia right-hander didn't walk a man in the 15th inning. He struck out seven and gave up 10 hits.

Indians Make Pennant Try Despite Spot

By The Canadian Press

While the Spokane fans tussle with the problem of providing a home for their orphaned Indians, the club is making a determined effort to get back into the Western International Baseball League pennant chase.

The Indians, midway of what could be their last WIL road trip, hung up their fourth straight win Thursday night in downing Edmonton 7-2 and 4-1. That hoisted them into third place, 5 1/2 games behind pace-setting Vancouver.

The Spokane club, left without a home when league officials declared the franchise forfeited last Sunday, is playing this week under direction of the league while a civic committee works on a community ownership plan.

The committee has until Monday to develop a program to take over the franchise and equipment from former owner Roy Hotchkiss.

Spokane Mayor Arthur Meehan, head of "Save the Spokane Indians, Inc.," said Thursday after a conference with Hotchkiss the committee must raise $39,866.41 by Monday to keep the team in the league. Meehan said the committee was confident it could get the money but the "question is can we get it in time."

Poor attendance was one of the reasons for Spokane's plight. That plague hit Vancouver on Thursday night. Only 104 fans, the smallest crowd in the history of the stadium, turned out on a drizzly night to watch the Caplans upset Victoria 8-2. The win stretched Vancouver's margin over runner-up Yakima to five full games.

Yakima split a doubleheader with Salem, winning the nightcap 2-0 after the Senators took the opener 7-1. Calgary thumped Lewiston 11-2 and Wenatchee shaded Tri-City 7-6.

At Yakima, Salem scored three runs in the first inning of the opener and never was headed. Danny Rios turned in a three-hitter for Yakima in winning the afterpiece.

Home runs by Charlie Lundgren and Gene Lillard crushed Lewiston at Calgary. Lundgren's two-run homer in the third snapped a 2-2 deadlock. Lillard added a grand-slammer in the sixth.

Ted Shandor held Tri-City scoreless for six innings at Wenatchee while his mates piled up a 6-0 lead. Three Wenatchee errors and two singles and a double let five Tri-City runs in the seventh. Tri-City scored once more in the eighth, after Tommy Munoz' homer had given Wenatchee an insurance run in the seventh, but Shandor managed to end the rally.

Extra Innings Sees Solons, Rainiers Win

By The Canadian Press

Seattle and Portland forced their Pacific Coast League baseball foes into overtime Thursday night.

Nippy Jones, Sacramento's first baseman, batted in the winning run as the Solons beat Portland, 4-3, in 10 innings, and at San Diego Tommy Byrne was the winner as Seattle shaded the Padres in the extra frame, 5-4. Bill Wight was the loser. It was Wight's first loss of the year and it snapped a San Diego winning streak that has extended to six games. Manager Jerry Pridy's single with two out drove in the winning run for the Rainiers. And that snapped Seattle's losing streak at six games.

Milo Candini was the winning pitcher at Sacramento as he came to the rescue of Bud Daley in the ninth inning against the Ports. Bob Alexander started for Portland, was relieved in the sixth by Jess Flores, and Lee Anthony took over in the ninth. Oakland put on a seventh inning rally good for three runs and a 5-3 victory over Los Angeles which had won the first two games of the series. Don Ferrarese, southpaw, held the Angels to seven hits.

The San Francisco Seals and the Hollywood Stars played one of those old-fashioned pitchers' battle ball games.

Hollywood won the game, 1-0, on a fifth inning home run by big Jack Phillips, third baseman.

The winning pitcher was Roger Bowman, who gave the Seals only three hits and fanned eight as he registered his eighth consecutive victory.

Elmer Singleton, who opposed Bowman, allowed only four hits in the seven innings he worked.

Slip in Card-Reading Trips Up Mr. Champion

"You never pay any attention to what the opponents play," stormed Mr. Champion. "You don't infer anything from the fall of the cards. I've forgotten more about card-reading than you'll ever know."

Mr. Champion was talking to Mr. Muzzy who had played the previous hand at a makeable game and—flubbed it. Against today's four-heart contract Mr. Masters opened the queen of spades. Dummy's king was trapped and the defenders took the first three tricks, ending in Mr. Masters' hand. He then shifted to the jack of diamonds and Mrs. Champion won with the king on the board.

There followed deadly silence, broken at last by Mr. Muzzy. "I've forgotten more about card-reading than you'll ever know."

It was clear at this point that the whole hand depended on losing no heart tricks. Mr. Champion gave some thought to this subject. He realized that if he successfully finessed the queen of hearts, he would still have to guess how to play the balance of the hand to keep the 10 from winning.

Seeing all the hands it's obvious that all he had to do was to finesse the queen, then lay down the ace. But he could see only his hand and dummy and the way the play came up, it wasn't so easy.

Mr. Dale had been doing some thinking, too. He realized he was in a very precarious position. If he played the 10 on the lead of a low heart from dummy, Mr. Champion would hardly go wrong.

So he didn't play the 10. When Mr. Champion led the four of hearts at trick five, he played the king of hearts promptly—but not too promptly. The ace in the closed hand won.
