New Mayor Appeals to Gyro Club

Making his first public utterance since assuming the office of mayor, Harold S. Whalen made an appeal at the Gyro Club luncheon yesterday for demonstration of greater interest and assumption of greater responsibility in civic affairs by citizens such as those represented by the Gyro Club.

As far as civic duty was concerned, the Gyro Club, as an organization, could not be beaten. His Worship acknowledged but, as individuals, he thought the members should take more active interest.

A year from now he hoped Gyros would have sponsored at least one or two aldermanic candidates.

"The city is the biggest business within the city limits," the mayor declared. "It amounts to some $800,000 a year and it should not have a bunch of dumb bums running it."

As for himself, Mr. Whalen felt some times that he was hardly capable of being chief magistrate.

He warned that Gyro members would be called upon for assistance in the next few years.

His Worship took occasion to officially welcome the Vancouver Elers' basketball team whose members were guests at the luncheon of Orme Stuart and W. D. Lambie.

President E. D. Forward was in the chair.

The basketball player guests, introduced by Reid Mitchell, were Coach Jim Bardsley, Don Forsythe, Ron Bissett, Leo Lizee, Jim Moses, Norman Watt and Peter Turko.

Other guests were Jack Watt, Ray Johnson, James Notman and Dr. L. P. Charbonneau.

INSTALLATION COMING

Mr. Forward reported arrangements complete for the installation proceedings January 16 when International Vice-President Jack Ryan of Nanaimo will be here to induct President-elect Marc Gormley and other officers. Dress for ladies will be formal and for men optional.

Dr. Jens Munthe was congratulated for success of the club's New Year's Eve party.

The club executive will meet this Friday night at the home of the president and the annual business luncheon will be held next Wednesday.

We wish to express sincere appreciation to our customers and friends for their support and patronage during the past year.

We hope that the New Year will be one of happiness.

'Pudding' Would Have Exploded

HOBOKEN, New Jersey — An alert porter found a suspicious package in a washroom of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad and promptly handed it over to railroad police.

Anthony Arcury, the porter, pointed out that the package was half the size of a hat box and wrapped in wax paper. An oily substance leaked from the wax paper and electric wire was wound around the wrapping.

The police threw the package in the Hudson River, hoping the water would prevent its blowing up.

Jersey City firemen told the police to soak the package in oil and then open it.

The plum pudding wasn't much good after its soaking.
