Vanderhoof Wins Hockey

TELKWA. - Vanderhoof Pee-Wees were victorious in Smithers as well as in Telkwa in last week's hockey.

Mild weather caused the ice to soften which showed the games and made playing extremely difficult.

Vanderhoof got away to good start with two goals against Telkwa in the first period. Telkwa players pressed hard in nunciation; Int.-Fashion vs. Merthe second period to bring the score up to 4-3 with Vanderhoof still in the lead. In the third period Telkwa boys found it impossible to hold the visitors back in spite of hard checking and another 3 goals were checked up for the Vanderhoof team, making a total score of 7-4 in favor of Vanderhoof.
