Ocean Visitor
 MEAFORD, Ont. (CP) - First ocean ship ever to enter this Georgian Bay harbor was the motorship Luciana of Kiel, Germany, which delivered 200 tons of steel piling for pier construction.
 HUGE TREES
 The Sitka spruce trees of the British Columbia coast may reach heights of 250 feet.

THE GRIMNESS of the business at hand is reflected in the faces of the principals in the McCarthy-Army controversy currently being aired in Washington. These candid studies were made as the sensational hearings stretched into the second week. Top row, left to right: Senator Joseph R. McCarthy; Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens; H. Struve Hensel, Assistant Secretary of Defense; bottom row, left to right) Roy M. Cohn, chief counsel to Senator McCarthy; Joseph N. Wezon, special counsel for the Army; and Ray H. Jenkins, special impartial counsel to the Senate Investigations sub-committee hearing the dispute.

Russians Deny School Military Training But Playground Exercises Like Drills

Editor's Note - When Bill Bess, Canadian Press staff writer, returned to Canada after five months in the Soviet Union, he brought notebooks crammed with sidelights on life behind the Iron Curtain. Here are some extracts from his handwritten records which the Russian censor did not see.

of a necktie.
 "Most people are wearing them now," he said. "Pretty soon we'll have invented them."
 The censor wouldn't let me tell that story when I tried to send it from Moscow.
 Here is what the newspaper said about speeches made at the time of the March elections:
 Assistant party secretary Pospelov: "Long applause."
 Lazar Kaganovich: "Thunderous applause."
 Nikita Krustchev: "Thunderous and prolonged applause, everybody stood."
 Clementi Voroshilov: "Long and thunderous applause growing into an ovation, welcoming shouts of 'Hurrah' and everybody stood."
 "In a country where they concentrate divisions of troops for anything from a parade or a funeral to the opening of a new store, we'd have to be pretty good to do it."
 Because Pravda is official mouthpiece of the Communist party, the phrases it uses to describe reception of Red leaders' speeches is a safe key to those leaders' popularity with officialdom.
 University students are exempt from conscription but must attend military lectures and drill as officer cadets. They go to military camp for two to four weeks during summer vacations and may qualify as reserve officers.
 Soviet claims to have invented almost everything aren't accepted without question by every Russian.
 A student commented that certain practices previously considered "bourgeois" are now reappearing. One is the wearing of neckties.
 Bassett found himself in way over his head against Orlando Zulueta at Brooklyn's eastern parkway and lost a unanimous verdict to the clever Cuban who is ranked second among lightweight contenders.
 Khalif used superior speed and a solid right hand punch to offset Saddlers left-hand punching and roughing tactics. Zulueta, at 13-to-59 choice, won as he pleased over Bassett.

Saddler, Bassett Both Decided By Underdogs in New York Bouts

NEW YORK - Featherweight champion Sandy Saddler and Percy Bassett, the "interim" king, had better stick to the 126-pound class from now on.
 The champ expected to romp home against Hoacine Khalif, a three-to-one underdog, Monday night at St. Nicholas arena and lost a split decision to the fleet Algerian lightweight.
