giver have been suspended the failure of the cenn of the temporary cross the Bear River. ded truck, owned by Burt been salvaged. structure will early date.

eard rumbling utes filling the r and shaking situated near Bear River Riage far enough to do any

ERSONALS

isit Wednesday obertson, former Royal Bank of Wednesday

ed her son-in-law and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie ay in Keremeos, and a sis-and Mrs. George Eales. të California.

readers

p.m. Everyone welcome. lks Hallowe'en Masquerade the Co-op Bakery, Friday Saturday: Chocolate Ban-Cake, only 50c. Don't forget cai illustrations. y Cinnamon Honey Bread hat extra treat.

ing and grocery hamper.

ce, Friday, Oct. 30. Whist,

WORLD PEACE

309 Third Ave. West Phone Red 878

Orders To Take Out

SPECIALIZING CHINESE DISHES

RUPERT'S LATEST newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Magner, married last Saturday in the Church of the Annunciation. The happy bride, Patricia, is daughter of Mr. Spiro Gurvich, 633 Tatlow Street, and the groom is son of Mrs. Rose Hallowin of Campbell River. The pair have taken up residence here.

Mickey Rooney To Star On Ford Theatre Play Tonight

Hollywood star Mickey Rooney Williams (Mickey Rooney) and a gets top billing in "Babes on his partner are singing for their holiday trip which took Broadway," the Ford Theatre meals. They are told the owner hour-long drama scheduled for cannot afford their services any 8:30 tonight on CFPR.

406 Fourth The effervescent little actor formance, a talent scout from a little we West, also returned yes- will get support from Kitty Kal- Broadway producer offers them ly aboard the George from a len and the Lynn Duddy chorus, an audition the following mornbusiness trip to Vancou- The story begins in a small ing. New York cafe where Tommy Unfortunately the audition

> Stated For Music (254) Appreciation Club

Members of the Music Appre- complications enter but all (254) ciation group which meets every reaches a happy conclusion. Friday in the Civic Centre women's lounge, this week will concentrate on "melody," with musi-

Miss Rusty Thain, who conducts the sessions, reports that ulp and Sulphite Union, Lo- major works to be heard tonight 98, Special Meeting, Friday, will include Beethoven's Fifth 30, Civic Centre, 7:00 p.m. Symphony, Bach's Brandenburg change in time and place. Concerto, as well as miscellan-(253) cous music by Schubert, Tchaikowsky and Chopin.

> Chatham Officers Honor Visitors At Mess Dinner

Visiting naval officers were EVERYONE WELCOME honored at Wednesday night's of HMCS Chatham.

Guests of honor were Cdr. (L) O. Meseck, RCN, command main-Juley House tenace officer, and Lt. Cold., b. B. Perrins, RCN, staff officer, ordinance.

Thirty-two officers and their wives attended the dinner in the Civic Centre which was followed by a social evening and dancing in the wardroom at Chatham. Cdr. Meseck and Lt. Perrins left pen 6 p.m. to 3 a.m. Daily last night on the Prince George to continue, inspections of west cials totalled results of the night. Two pairs of skates will o'clock Saturday night.

Record Sale of Shell Out Tickets Assures Children of 'Bang Up' Parties

The campaign netted a grand parties, to youngsters bringing total of $858.54 to finance the in the largest number of tickets children to the bonfire party Kinsmen's parties, with Borden -collected in "trick and treat" closest to home. The parties will Street School winning top hon- tours of the city earlier that be held at Conrad Street school, ors in the ticket sales contest. evening.

took the Kinsmen club's trophy for best costumes at each bonfire heir children away from the for top sales per student, and party, and climaxing the even- fireworks centre. Patricia Parfeoriak of Borden school won the grand prize for individual sales, topping all students by selling $41 worth of tickets.

Kinsmen use the income to finance their annual bonfire parties, treats, and fireworks dis-

Wednesday, selling a total of Cathedral this week

encil set and third, a wallet.

King Edward school placed second in the sales contest, with a total of $203. First prize went to Don Philipps, second, Charles Lowe and third, Gailya Grimolf-

Marlene Gurbut.

Annunciation School sold total of $117.40, with Linda Burn first, Eva Rydd second and Bill Saunders thiru.

sales contest.

Youngsters togged out as witches, ghosts and goblins will be more. But, at their final per-

House. He later stages an openair show on the streets to try and raise funds for the Settlement House, but the venture fails. Undaunted, he and the girl 'borrow" an old vacant theatre and stage their own show. Many does not come off and Tommy meets a girl from a Settlement

NAVY HALLOWE'EN DANCE Friday, October 30

Navy Drill Hall Dancing 10 -2 Admission $1.00

Music by THE DUKES Door Prize Novelty Dances

plays for youngsters in the city. Troop and the Wolf Cub Pack den above it. Stewart Donaldson Some 180 students at Borden— will be hosts at an "Open House" has offered to donate 2,000 feet high-pressured their ticket-sales tonight at the Cathedral Parish $353.50 worth of tickets, for an The open house, lasting from average per student of $1.971/2. 7:30 until 9 p.m., is the Scouts' Second prize in Borden school, and Cubs' way of showing their a pen and pencil set, went to appreciation to the Men's Club, Marcia Mah for selling $29.75 which sponsors the two groups.

In the other schools, first served. prize was a wrist watch, boys or

Conrad Street School was next with a total of $184.64, and first rize going to Welma Denlock. ond Anne Peterson, third

Grades three, four, fire and six participated in the ticket

Suits

Tailored-tomeasure in the finest 100% virgin British woollens, they fit perfectly, stylefully, comfortably Special purchase for thi anniversary year-no more skilled designing, no more comfortable fit is offered at

Johnston's low Royal York price-only $69.50 2-piece anywhere near

MEN'S CLOTHING

Prince Rupert youngsters were, seeking more prizes and treats, ing's fun will be a big aerial fireassured of bang-up Hallowe'en at the three bonfire parties to works display to be set off from parties, when Kinsmen club offi- be staged at 7 o'clock Hallowe'en a central point, at about eight youngsters' shell-out ticket sales. be awarded at each of the three | Parents are asked to send their Totem and Gyro parks. Kinsmen Borden students collectively There will also be small prizes today also urged parents to keep throughout the contest, which Hall, it was announced at the started October 21 at school regular dinner meeting of the closing—and wound up at 1 p.m. Men's Club of St. Andrew's worth of tickets, and third prize, Parents, friends and other ina wallet, to James Wilson, who terested persons are invited to attend. Refreshments will be

Boy Scout Troop, Cub Pack To Hold 'Open House' Tonight

At the dinner meeting of the girls, second prize a pen and club, at which the men prepare , and serve the dinner, president Eric Faure was chairman. The dinner arrangements were the hands of Foster Husoy.

Plans were discussed for lowering the ceiling of the church

First Prince Rupert Boy Scout hall so that wiring could be hidof two-by-four for the job.

Scout committee members Joe Ridsdale, Maurice Wayman and Foster Husoy spoke to the club and Scouter G. V. Van Roche gave a report on activities.

This advertisement is not published or displayed by the Liquor Control Board

Yesterday's Milk Today NOT Tomorrow

STARRING MICKEY ROONEY and KITTY KALLEN

ONE WHOLE HOUR OF LAUGHS PRESENTED BY

FORD of CANADA 9:30 P.M. - FROM RADIO CFPR - 1240 K.C.

"The Home of Friendly Service"

Your Local FORD-MONARCH Dealer

you'll ever want in a sewing machine - it darns, embroiders, monograms, mends almost invisibly . . . plus so many other sewing operations too numerous to mention. It even makes buttonholes and sews on buttons! And the Elna carries a lifetime guarantee!

You can see this modern sewing miracle right in your own home at your convenience and without obligation.

You can't afford to buy any sewing machine - until you've seen an Elna!

... easy credit terms $15.00 Monthly

* Rotary type self-sharpening blades.

* Does not pull, burn or irritate your skin.

TEN DAYS FREE TRIAL-You are under no obligation to buy . . . This shaver is guaranteed to shave you or YOUR MONEY BACK.

$9.95 Down

$2.50 Month

An Excellent Christmas Gift for Father $1.00 will hold one until Christmas

FOR CHRISTMAS

BOXES from

59c to $1.00 SINGLES from Sc each

SPECIAL OVERSEAS SELECTION NOW AVAILABLE

LIMITED

Phone 6 or 36