> "Before the war," he said, "we were too small to play against your big leaders. Our pitchers had little speed and our batters seldom hit anything longer than a single. Also, we had only college teams in those days. Now we have two major professional leagues, the same as you, and the class of play is improving each season. There is no reason we should not match you within few years."

> The conversation keeps coming patches from Japan. Both New York Giants and Eddie Lopat' All-Stars are winning practically all their games, true enough, but run for their money.

MARCIANO, BRITISH CHAMPION FIGHT FOR TITLE NEXT JUNE

PARIS (AP)-Rocky Marciano, world heavyweight champion, will fight the British champion, Don Cockrell, in a 15round title bout next June, Al Weill, the world's titleholder's manager said today. The match will be held either in London or the United States, "wherever we could get more money," Weill said.

The manager made his announcement of the heavyweight bout after a one-hour talk with Jack Solomons, Britain's boxing promoter. "No final decision on the matter will be taken, however." Weill said, "until I talk with the International Boxing Club manager next week in New York."
