S10,000 Home For $1,000 LIVING PROB-By FORBES RHUDE onto has some ideas (Canadian Press

Business Editor)

TORONTO (A proposal de-

gned to make more money available for home building, with lower down payments and somewhat lower interest rates, is

from the issuing company.

would operate like this:

he wanted, and, depending

of the 20 per cent down payment,

the company would advance a

Under this, a house costing say, $10,000, could be bought for a lown payment of $1,00

Under the plan, however,

some one, presumably by a local government, and presumably provincial government.

would be necessary that

further 10 per cent.

g the "inflation,

e-this comes first, being discussed in lumber circles. buyers' resistance flate prices. food values-count to quantitieslly weights on canekaged goods. make menus at-

and after buying.

conserve fuel for cooking.

die-keeping trying id of the bank.

nd mend.

rings will quickly despise them.

your grievances—in the company's bonds. d be demanded.

ment institutions. ut don't sacrifice eye

RECIPE

(either fresh or

Talk of $100,000,000 Company- on the basis of the soundness of their set-up, and upon whether or not they thought a correct estimate had been made of the

NO PROFITS

Under the proposal, there would be no profits to the company. Interested lumber companies would benefit from their sales of lumber.

costs of operating the scheme.

Maurice B. Dix, secretary-The plan is said to be similar to those of Brtish building so- manager of the National Council of Retail Lumbermen and A company would be formed to president and general manager issue, say, $100,000,000 in bonds, of Interprovincial Building which would be offered for sale Credits, Ltd., gives the following to the tempta- to the public and investment in- division of the five per cent in- the executive discussed the suc-

These bonds would pay 31/2 per would pay on his mortgage: cent interest to the purchasers. To bond holders 31/2 per cent; of prepared foods The federal government would to federal government for tax, asked to allow this interest 1/2 per cent; reserve (to cover to be tax-free, and to collect possible losses), 1/4 per cent; serthan a brain food 1/2 per cent tax on the bonds vices, 1/2 per cent; administration, 1/4 per cent.

Assuming the bonds were sold, The plan envisions operation the company would then have through interprovincial building $100.000,000 for its program. It credits, owned chiefly by retail lumbermen, which handles the The prospective home pur- financing of credits granted by chaser would pick out the house retailers to home owners for home improvement.

both the purchaser and the It handles credits from $100 to house being approved, the com-$2,000, and on the basis of expany would buy it for him, and perience with these, Mr. Dix he would repay the company thinks the cost of administering through a mortgage on which the plan would be moderate. He he would pay five per cent insays Interprovincial Building Credits has virtually no collec-The mortgage ordinarily would tion problems, and adds: be up to 80 per cent of the price

"Home owners certainly pay of the house, but if the purchasup. Money pours in on the due er still did not have the amount date. We hardly know a lawyer. Last year, out of $3,000,000 in notes, our loss was only $400."

The plan envisions that builders would be in the same position as producers of other lines of goods. They would build the house, and the buyer would see amount of the mortgage above the finished article before he 80 per cent, be guaranteed by took it.

NEWHAVEN, England (-Municipal authorities in this Sussex The practicability of the pro- town are urging children to posal would seem to depend upon "adopt" their own trees on a whether or not the governments local estate. It is hoped the asked to participate would con- children will thus learn to care he experience of ex- sider it sound, and whether or for the trees instead of damagnot there were purchasers for ing them.

> Saleability of the bonds, unless LONDON (P-Britons visiting there were a big public response to them, would seem to depend the continent this summer may upon their appealing to invest- be able to insure their holidays against rain. A similar plan has The investment companies, or already been started by a Dutch other private purchasers, would firm which pays clients £1 every presumably examine the bonds day it rains.

"CCC Club

Mel Davis has been elected chairman of the CCC 300 Club, social organization of Columbia Cellulose employees, which had a general meeting this week.

Other officers are: Vice-chairman Bill Bond. Secretary, Edyta Bialoski. Treasurer, William Halliwell. Sports director, Olen Bennett.

Music and drama director, Hector Carpenter.

At the last executive meeting terest which the home purchaser eess of the 300 Club Easter in excellent voice and blending "Liebestraum." The adjudicator summer season.

> gate were complimented for structive suggestions. their efforts in organizaing a camera club for 300 Club mem- Roberts, Lindseth and Wicker- The Ketchikan trio had not arbers. The camera club execu- accompanied by Henry Pluym, rived but was still expected. tive is already busy with plans delighted the large audience In the adult vocal solo class to provide instruction and with their two numbers "Dream Roland H. Miles, accompanied membership.

other sports and hopes to have Marks totalled 169. cal sports competitions.

Local Band and Aiyansh Choir at Music Festival proved yet another popular fes- Henry Pluym at the piano and Music and Drama Festival opened Tuesday night with two numbers from the local Shrine Band under the baton of Peter Lien. The "Martha" melodies were warmly approved by the adjudicator who awarded 86 for these and 84 for the Handel selection which followed. He commented that this band had an unusual facility in musical expression.

St. Peter's Choir from Aiyansh Social activities director, Jack the Lord" by Ivanof and offered Aletta Gilker, piano and Ray dance, recently held at the ar- and were awarded 165 marks by said that all across Canada mories, and laid plans for a busy the adjudicator who made a there is not enough of this sort A. N. Van Meer and Stan Hol- number of helpful and con- of music and he urged this the club well represented in lo- The chamber music class and "Ah, So Pure" (Flotow), brought two fine numbers from both in the original Italian. Both conducted by Reuben McMillan an instrumental trio made up rendered the test piece "Bless of Ruth Carr--Harris, violin, Handel's "Worthy Is the Lamb" Sahlin, violincello - Dvorak's as their own choice. They were "Slavonic Dance" and Liszt's group to continue the good work. The ladies' trio-Mesdames He awarded them a total of 165.

equipment to its enthusiastic Seller" and "The Lamb." The by Henry Pluym, sang "Moon of adjudication was also highly My Delight" and "My Lovely Sports Director Olen Bennett complimentary along with sug- Celia," and Inez Amadio, acdiscussed football, softball and gestions for greater excellence, companied by Olive Strand, sang "Ah, I have Sighed" by Verdi received very good actualica ins diate Band of the light a with one extra mark for the marks for "Santa Lucia" for the first singer for his first song. variety in their tonal quality. The accordion ensembles, un- The vocal duet "O Divine Reder the direction of Mike Co- deemer" (Gounod) was beautilussi, were enthusiastically re- fully rendered by Mrs. C. Robceived by the audience. This erts and Rowland Miles with tival innovation. The Interme- received 85 marks.

lea as it should be

FINE QUALITY... CHOICE FLAVOR ... FULL SATISFYING STRENGTH

coffee a rich,

Pacific Milk gives creamy flavor.

Buy B.C. Products

You get a trial-size bottle of Johnson's PRIDE

... When you buy Johnson's New PASTE WAX!

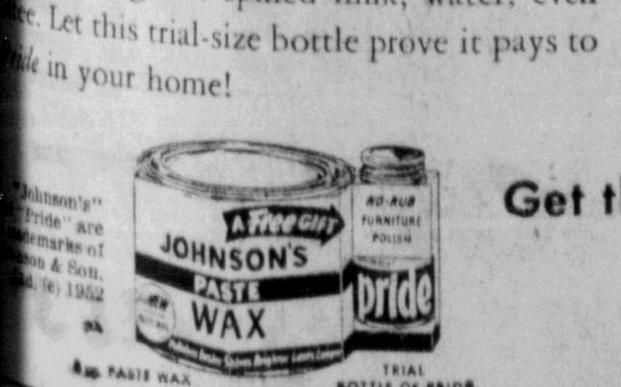

FURNITURE without rubbing!

sanew wax discovery for furniture. Apply y ... wipe lightly. That's all you do to ichest, longest lasting wax lustre ever seen ! Without rubbing! Pride gives real wax on, too, against spilled milk, water, even

Wax FLOORS the proven way!

Nothing beautifies and protects wood floors like Johnson's Paste Wax. That's why it's the largest selling paste wax in the world! And today it's even better than ever-gives a brighter, longer lasting shine with less rubbing. Give your floors permanent beauty instead of a temporary shine, with regular Johnson's Paste Wax care!

Get this 2-in-1 package at your dealers now!