Election Challenged

VANCOUVER (CP)—Legality of the election of two commissioners for Dawson Creek, B.C., is being challenged in Supreme Court at Vancouver.

Arthur McEwan, a Dawson Creek barrister, charges the nomination was incorrectly refused because of property qualifications. The other two nominations were elected for two years by acclamation.

ALL REPUBLICANS are not as stodgy as some people may believe. Lovely Louise Sedon was voted Miss Young Republican in Las Vegas, where a convention of Young Republican Club members from 11 Western states was taking place.

FRANCES MAGNES

Woman Violinist To Appear Soon in Alaska Trail Series

Frances Magnes, brilliant American violinist, will be heard on January 20 in the third part of the Alaska Music Trail series at the Civic Centre. The young artist, who has been hailed by music critics as one of the few great women violinists, was born in Cleveland and commenced her musical studies in that city.

ON Establishes New Office in Rupert

Establishment of a claims department in Prince Rupert was announced today by the Canadian National Railways. Claims agent, K. L. Mackie, arrived to take over the office which will handle all claims against the railway, except in freight, for the Smithers division, from Prince Rupert to Hazelton.

Officials said establishment of the claims agency here was necessitated by the quick growth of the city in the north during the few years. Formerly, all claims against the company from this division were handled through the Vancouver office.

Accompanying Mr. Mackie to help establish the office is D. Jenkins of Vancouver, assistant chief claims agent for the western region.

Mr. Mackie had worked in the Vancouver office for the past 10 years. Prior to that he was in Seattle in Saskatchewan.

His wife and family will join him here in the near future.

well-known teachers as well as at the Cleveland Institute of Music and the famed L'Ecole Americaine in Montalmeblue, France, and won many musical awards.

Her first major appearance was with the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra when she was 14. During her studies in France she gave some concerts and, after her return to America, toured for two seasons with the Adolf Busch Symphony. Her first annual Carnegie Hall recital launched her as a mature artist, after which she played in Paris, London, and cities of Israel.

Her instrument is an Amati, made by that master in 1641. The valuable instrument is designed on the "grand pattern," a larger scale than the type known as the "baby violin."

The young artist has received acclaim not only from audiences but also from composers and Ernst Dohnanyi wrote his second violin concerto for Miss Magnes, who played the premiere performance with Dmitri Mitropoulos conducting the New York Philharmonic.

Miss Magnes, who has been married for 10 years to Benedict Magnes, television expert, will be accompanied by pianist David Garvey on her Alaska Music Trail tour.

Charges Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—Members of the Alaskan Salmon Industry Inc. and the fishermen's unions have denied charges of conspiracy to fix prices.

The charge was made in a complaint by the Federal Trade Commission No. 12. It named 43 canning companies, 11 fishermen's unions, the industry's trade association and its managing director, W. C. Arnold of Seattle, as respondents.

Princess Patron LONDON (CP)—The Canadian Women's Club in London will hold its annual Maple Leaf ball June 9 under the patronage of Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone.
