Terrace Forms Film Council, Law Graduate Names Officers Joins City Firm

Prince Rupert Daily News

Saturday, October 3, 1953

TERRACE. - A Film Council George, has joined the law firm representatives of several local ate of the University of B.C. law organizations, sponsored by a school, the 31-year-old solicitor Parent-Teacher Association was called to the bar a week ago committee.

First president of the new organization is Fred Macklin Other officers are Rev. H. Thibideau, vice-president; Miss P Pendergast. secretary-treasurer; Glen, librarian and officer, and council members Jack McLeod, Jimmy Strang and Mrs. F. M. Hall.

The group heard-a talk on the aims of film councils and methods of attaining those aims by Neil Carlson of Prince George, a representative of the National Film Board.

It was noted that some $500 would be required to purchase projection equipment and the group planned to canvass local businessmen for funds for the initial cost. The council would eventually become self-supporting through charges for rental of the machine and films by various community organizations. Mr. Carlson told the group that there were 361 films councils in Canada, involving some 8,000 organizations. The work of those groups was to obtain films
